THE DRAKE FAMILY

There were several members of this family in Dutchess County in the 18th century. Unfortunately there is no agreement as to their heritage. We have chosen not to follow the Drake Genealogy<sup>1</sup> exclusively but to use what seems accurate therein and to present what MacKenzie and James A. Rasmussen, C.G.<sup>2</sup> have compiled on this family.

The emigrant ancestor of the local Drake family was SAMUEL DRAKE who was born in England and settled in Fairfield, CT where he married Ann, dau. of John Barlow, 13 Sept. 1650. Drake removed to Eastchester, Westchester Co., NY in 1665 and died there 16 May 1686. His will and the inventory of his estate is abstracted at WN-YHS 1:134-5.

Children:

- i. Rebecca; m. 1st Joseph Jones, 2nd ___ Rogers.
- ii. John; m. Sarah ___
- iii. Mary; m. Samuel Palmer.
- iv. Joseph; m. Mary Shute.
- v. Mercy; m. Leffellane Slaughter.
- vi. Samuel; m. Ruth Sherwood. He died s.p. 1691.
- vii. Hannah; m. Richard Hedley.

JOHN<sup>2</sup> DRAKE, (Samuel<sup>1</sup>), was born at Fairfield ca. 1652 and married Sarah, last name unknown but very likely related to Nathaniel White of Westchester.<sup>3</sup> He lived at Eastchester where he was noted in land transactions as early as 10 Feb. 1672. He died between 8 and 27 Feb. 1716/17 and left several children although only one is of record.

Children:<sup>4</sup>

THE SETTLERS OF THE BEEKMAN PATENT

2. GERARDUS<sup>5</sup> DRAKE, (John<sup>2</sup>, Samuel<sup>1</sup>), was born ca. 1680-1700 and married by 19 March 1727/8, Elizabeth, dau. of Henry Disbrow Sr. and his wife Mary Griffin of Mamaroneck, Westchester Co., NY.<sup>6</sup> Henry Disbrow was noted to Gerardus and Elizabeth Drake on that date. Drake was a weaver and was noted on several land records 15 Oct. 1738 and after. Henry Disbrow Sr. of Mamaroneck sold Drake of the same place, land in lot #4 in Mamaroneck which had been granted to him by his father Henry Disbrow 9 Jan. 1740. The deed was acknowledged by John Mott of NYC 15 May 1754.<sup>7</sup> Elizabeth Disbrow was noted in the will of her father April 1747 but not in that of her brother Joseph dated 4 Aug. 1756. On 13 April 1763 Anne Griffin and Benjamin Griffin<sup>8</sup>, executors to the last will of Henry Griffin, late of Roc. sold to William Lounsbury of Mamaroneck, land in Harrison, NY, purchased (sic) which Henry Griffin purchased from Gerardus Drake [MSB:1927:243].

Gerardus Drake married Sarah Beasley in 1753 as his 2nd wife, probably in the Albany area.<sup>9</sup> She was most likely a descendant of John Beasley and his wife Lydia Van Benthuyzen, early settlers of Albany. He then resided in Rombout where he was taxed from 1767 until he removed to Beekman in 1773. He was taxed in Beekman in 1773 and 1774 only. Gerardus Drake resided on a 100 acre farm in lot 17 of the Patent on present day Mountain Road which today is about one quarter mile west of the Taconic Parkway. He seems to have come to this farm before the tax lists indicate William Ash, the previous owner, had left and possibly he stayed with him. He was named on a road dedication 25 May 1773. [SBP 1:362].

The will of Gerardus Drake was written 8 June 1773 and proved 6 July 1773. His will was abstracted as follows: "In the name of God, Amen. I Gerardus Drake, of Beekmans Precinct, in Dutchess County, being aged and infirm, order all debts to be paid. I leave to my wife Sarah all my estate that shall remain after my debts are paid, and I make her and Benjamin Griffin executors."<sup>10</sup> Jonathan Thorne<sup>11</sup>, Anne Brown and Gabriel Smith were witnesses. [WN-YHS 8:243].

<sup>7</sup> Drake was noted in other deeds in Westchester Co.: F:206, G:274, 280.

<sup>8</sup> This is probably the same Benjamin Griffin who was an executor to the will of Gerardus Drake of Beekman.

Children:<sup>12</sup>

3. i. John; m. Catherine Chatterton.
4. ii. Gerardus; m. Ann Dean.
- iii. Sarah, b. 19 April 1758; m. Daniel, son of Peter and Charity (Cramer) Deyo. They had son Gerardus. [See Deyo 21].
5. iv. Peter; m. Phebe Thomas.
- v. Elizabeth; m. Martin, son of Jacob and Catherine (Overocker) Stover. (See our Stover family).
- vi. ?Son; m. Charity Haight before 18 May 1796 and she was dismissed 15 June 1796 from Nine Partners Meeting.

3. JOHN<sup>4</sup> DRAKE, (Gerardus<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Samuel<sup>1</sup>), was born 29 March 1761 at Patton Hollow, Albany Co. NY<sup>13</sup> and m. Catherine, probably, daughter of William Chatterton and wife Mary ___ of Beekman.<sup>14</sup> John Drake was a witness for Stephen Dean of Oswego in Beekman Town whose will was dated 5 October 1795. [DCW B:82]. A John Drake was a witness for William McCord of Poughkeepsie whose will was dated 27 July 1788. [DCW D:583]. The Beekman rent papers note: "Augustine Titus has liberty to assign the lease of his farm to John Drake - Witness my hand and seal this 20th Nov. 1783. In behalf of M. Livingston. Date of lease is 24th Oct. 1773."

This notation includes a sketch map with a stream and house located on it.

In 1790 John Drake was in Beekman at 1-0-5 and was between Garrett Burtis and Gerardus Drake.<sup>15</sup> A road dedication of October 1792 mentions him and his brother Gerardus. [SBP I:367]. John Drake and his family, including his wife and children Sarah, Meriba, Hannah and William, received a certificate to the Creek Meeting 18 March, 1795. The family also included Thomas Rider, apprentice, and Mary Carpenter. Previously Joseph Bennet, with permission of <sup>12</sup> Jonathan Thorne lived about one-half mile west of Drake and was a prominent Loyalist during the Revolution. He died in prison in Hartford, CT.

<sup>13</sup> Gerardus and John from Drake, 18. Others from local records. Note that McK claims Gerardus died without children.

<sup>14</sup> Date and place of birth from Drake 18 but John Drake was aged over 45 in 1800 census and the Gazetteer of the State of New York, French, 1860, does not include a Patton Hollow but Preston Hollow is very close to Rensselaerville where he died.

<sup>15</sup> Ricketson 68. Catherine Chatterton was not included in our Chatterton family, SBP III:395-402 but most likely belongs there. Her presumed brothers Betts and Michael Chatterton moved to Bethlehem, near Coeymans, when they left Beekman.

<sup>16</sup> There were six men of this name in Dutchess County in 1790. We believe this to be the correct listing because of the proximity to Gerardus Drake.

THE SETTLERS OF THE BEEKMAN PATENT

his father, became apprenticed to John Drake to learn the trade of a saddler. In 1806 Bennett married Mary, the daughter of John Drake. [Creek MM].

On 11 April 1796 he purchased 45 acres in Water Lot 8 from Ebenezer, Azariah and Mary Mallory of Clinton for £217. Drake was listed as of Clinton at the time. [D 14:116]. In 1800 he was in Clinton at 2-0-1-1-1 and 2-3-0-1-1 and was between Benoni Kip and James Culver. In 1800 he was an overseer of highways for district 37 in Clinton (his brother Gerardus was the same for district 10) and the value of his real property in 1801 was $1030.<sup>16</sup> His fortunes had improved somewhat since the 1785 Henry Beekman bond list when he owed £80. He had taken out a bond for £74/16/9 on 10 Nov 1783. Although he was behind on the bond the landlord did not seem to be too upset; a comment on the bond list stated "Poor, very industrious". The Livingston Rent Book, page 94, has a cryptic note on the top of the page which states: "Now in poss<sup>n</sup> of John Drake." This was for a farm in lot 17 of 174 acres that the rent book shows was last leased by Elizabeth and Ezekiel Palen in 1783. There is no other reference to Drake.

The family removed to Coeymans 20 May 1808, three children clear. [Creek MM]. John Drake was in Albany Co., NY in 1810 at 2-0-2-0-1 and 0-1-2-0-1. He was on page 151 of the census, the page after Gerardus Drake. John Drake died in Rensselaerville, Albany Co., NY 21 August 1844, age 83 years. He was called a minister of the Society of Friends in the obit. [TD].

Children:

- i. Mary, m. Joseph Bennett 1806. [Creek MM].
- ii. Sarah.
- iii. Meriba, b. 30 Aug. 1790; m. Jacob, b. 11 July 1787, son of Jordan and Amy (Underhill) Frost. [Underhill 226].
- iv. Hannah, b. 25 March 1792. (See footnote on next).
- v. William, b. 25 Aug. 1794.<sup>17</sup>
- vi. Phebe, b. 31 Jan. 1798; m. Rowland Mott.<sup>18</sup>
- vii. Joseph, b. 14 May 1802. (Coeymans).
- viii. John., b. 24 Dec. 1807, recorded at Coeymans Meeting. [IG]

<sup>17</sup> [G] says born at Coeymans but he must have been born at Beekman and the birth later recorded at the Coeymans Meeting.

1791. Ann, born ca. 1768, dau. of Stephen and Mary (Flandreau) Dean of Beekman.<sup>19</sup> He was mentioned in the Livingston rent books:

Rent book 'E', page 76 has the name of John Drake as the page heading. A lease to Augustin Titus is then repeated and in 1794 is found: "Gerardus Drake has assigned his part of the farm to his brother Peter. For leave<sup>20</sup> he paid £9/10." Gerardus Drake had begun paying rents as early as 5 Feb. 1790 when he delivered 25 bushels, 9 pecks and two fowles to Richard Davis' store. Then rents were paid by Gerardus, John and Peter Drake through 1797 when Barnet Masten and John Drake only began paying them. In January 1801, however, Gerardus and Peter Drake also paid cash in lieu of wheat. [ELP Box 127, Rent Book E:76]. John Cox, agent for the Livingston family noted "rec'd £9/10 from Gerardus Drake of BP" ca. 1785-90. [ELP Box 116, F. 13].

Both Gerardus Jr. and his brother John remained in Beekman and at the time of the 1790 census they were still in area of their father's farm. In a road dedication October 1792 it states that the road passes between the houses of John and Gerardus Drake in the neighborhood of Rossway Road. [SBP I:367]. Gerardus was listed in 1790 at 2-0-3 and was between John Drake and Stephen Dean. Gerardus Drake Jr. was probably living in Town of Clinton water lot 9 in 1796. [M 7:45]. He was in Clinton Town in 1800 at 1-0-0-1-0 and 3-0-0-1-0 and was between John Briggs and John Culver. He was listed as a highway overseer in Clinton for the years 1800 and 1801 and had a valuation of $487 on his real property in 1801.

Gerardus Drake and his wife Anne and dau. Miriam and son Israel took a certificate of transfer from Creek to Coeymans on 17 May, 1803. He was probably the man in Albany Co. in 1810 on page 150 at 2-1-0-1-1 and 0-2-1-2-0. John Drake was on the next page in this census. A Gerardus Drake married 24 Feb. 1808 at Rensselaerville, NY<sup>21</sup> Catherine, dau. of Jordan and Amy (Underhill) Frost of the same area. [Underhill 226]. It seems likely that it was this man who married as a 2nd marriage, rather than it being a son who would be only seventeen years old.

Children: (ii.-v. from notes of William Abbot concerning the Dean family at NEHGS Library).

- i. Hannah, b. 1791; d. 1871.

<sup>19</sup> He may have had children before this marriage. He was listed in 1790 at 2-0-3, a year before marriage. The location of this marriage is questionable, see footnote # 21.

THE SETTLERS OF THE BEEKMAN PATENT

In 1805 he was an Overseer of the Oswego Friend's Meeting and in 1812 was a LaGrange school trustee in District #2. He had a house, one outhouse and land in Oct. 1799 and was taxed on real property worth $988 and personal valued at $70.

Peter Drake was listed in Beekman in 1800 at 2-0-1-1-0 and 1-0-0-1-0 and was between John Leake and Barent Masten. He was listed as a boundary in 1801 on a mortgage. [M 8:566]. He was still listed in the same place in 1810, [M 15:311], in 1815, [M 21:353], and in Nov. 1818. [M 25:150]. In 1810 he was in Beekman at 1-1-0-1-0 and 0-1-0-1-0 and he had 2 horses and 3 cattle. He was between Gilbert Olger and Joseph Bull. Peter Drake was a customer at the Owen Ward store in Pleasant Valley ca. 1810. [DCSB MM:80].

When Richard Mastin of Beekman died 2 Oct. 1816 and left an estate valued at $800, Walter Wilson, Sarah Mastin and William Low all renounced administration in favor of Peter Drake and Thomas Broadway, both of Beekman. Drake gave a statement as to when Mastin died. Peter Drake and Thomas Broadway, Daniel Gidley of Poughkeepsie and John S. Freer of same were all on bond of $1600 and the estate was filed 19 Oct. 1816. [DCW Box 838]. Peter Drake was an executor for John Baright Jr. of Clinton whose will was dated 3 January 1813. [DCW E:182]. Peter Drake's wife Phebe gave a statement 2 Oct. 1838 in support of a pension application for John Smith, formerly of Beekman. [Rev. Pens. W19061]. Peter and Thomas Drake are involved in DC deeds 28:18 and 61:258.

<sup>23</sup> The [G] shows her and her brother Israel as dau. and son of Garrardus and Catherine, (sic) Drake and born at Coeymans. This must be an error because the first wife Anne was on the removal certificate in 1803.

Peter Drake died 19 May 1846 age 77 at the home of a son in LaGrange and his widow died 10 Feb. 1850, age 78-3-14. [TD, Oswego MM].

[M 25:289, 291]. Thomas, Peter, and Charles Drake were witnesses for Garret Burtis of Freedom whose will was dated 18 March 1822. [DCW G:20] Charles Drake was a witness to Minard Vellie's will dated 22 June 1823. [DCW F:470]. Mahala Drake, wife of Charles d. age 57-6-4 and was bd. in the Oswego Ground. No dates on stone. [OGDC 355]. They had taken a brief residency at Coeymans from 18 Aug. 1830 through 17 Nov. 1830, then at NYC in April 1850 and finally at Chesterfield in July 1857. [Oswego MM].
- iii. Thomas; m. 24 May 1826, Eliza, dau. of Timothy and Phebe Pinkham. [Oswego MM, qv. for their seven children]. He was probably the Thomas Drake who died in LaGrange 10 April 1865, age 65. [TD]. He would appear to be the son of Peter Drake, born in England 16 June 1739 who married Abigail Woolsey and came to Dutchess County for a while and then went to New Brunswick during the War. The Drake Genealogy, 284, claims John Drake Junior wrote a letter to his New Brunswick relatives from New Hamburg, Dutchess County on 9 August 1823. John Drake, the father of the children listed below lived at New Hamburg.
