- x. LEVI W. ROSE, b. 30 Oct 1813.
- xi. REUBEN H. ROSE, b. 08 Apr 1815; m. ELIZA SUSAN POWERS.

3. WILLIAM² ROSE (*JOHN*¹) was born Abt. 1775, and died 08 Apr 1836. He married (1) MERCY Bef. 29 Apr 1805 in (See Ulster co., NY Mortgage book 9 pp.724-725) deed has Wm with wife Marcy. He married (2) ELIZABETH BROWN Bef. 23 May 1825 in Deed in Ulster County, NY dated 11 Feb 1826 shows him with wife Elizabeth. She was born 1794 in New York State It is possible that Elizabeth married a Ball after Wm's death., and died 1877.

Notes for WILLIAM ROSE:

From Deeds and Mortgages of Ulster County:

Children: Rose, unknown.

WOW, the family is Wm Rose of where else but Ulster Co. NY. He married a (1st? wife Mercy) 2nd Elizabeth Brown. "He was a wealthy farmer lived on the Hudson River near Poughkeepsie, NY." This note is from Commemorative Biographical Record of the Fox River Valley (Wisconsin) counties of Brown, Outagamie and Winnebago. Pg. 1087.

My ancestor is Wm's son Phillip A. I understand that Wm's father may be a John. I also understand that the Drakes also came from the same area of NY as the Roses. This sounds very much like a real hit..I just notice of another note from you...Susan

Here is the complete para..William Rose, "was a wealthy farmer, who lived on the Hudson river near Pougheepsie, N.Y.' (commemorative Biographical Record of the Fox River Valley. (Wis), Counties of Brown, Outagamie and Winnegabo, (Chic.: J.H. Beers & co., 1895, p 1087. He died April 8 1836 (according to a family record in handwriing of a grand-daughter, hereafter referred to as Drake Family Record.So far I have not found the gravesite of Wm Rose. I have the gravesite of Elizabeth Brown Rose buried with her bro-in-law Wm H.Rose at Brookside Cemetery, Fairgrove Twp., Tuscola Co., MI as for the info on Wm Rose was in a Wis thing, do not know..Maybe someday will look this up..Sue

Notes for ELIZABETH BROWN:

Elizabeth Brown "of English descent, and a relative of Felicia Brown Hemans, the poetess" (ibid.) She is also confirmed as a Brown in the Death Certificate of son David B. Rose, which show father: Wm. Rose, b. New York State, and mother: E. Brown, b. New York State.

She is evidentially the "Grandma" whose gravestone shows 1794-1877, buried in the same plot as her son William H. Rose in the Fairgrove Cemetery, Tuscola County, Michigan.

Children of WILLIAM ROSE and ELIZABETH BROWN are:

- i. GRACE³ ROSE, m. MR. MERRIMAN.
- ii. GIRL ROSE, m. P. R. BATTERFEE.
6. iii. PHILLIP A ROSE, b. 10 Oct 1811, or 1812 in NY New Paltz, Ulster Co., NY.
7. iv. MERCY ANN ROSE, b. 02 Jul 1814, NY.
8. v. ALMIRA (ALMYRA) ROSE, b. 20 May 1816, probably NY; d. 16 Nov 1873, Washtenaw Co., MI buried in Forest Hill Cem, Ann Arbor, MI.
9. vi. WILLIAM H. ROSE, b. 11 Oct 1818, NY; d. 20 Jul 1877, Indian Fields, Tuscola Co., MI. of cancer of the stomach..
10. vii. ESTHER ANN ROSE, b. 1821; d. 1872.
- viii. HARRIET J. ROSE, b. Abt. 1825, New York State; m. WILLIAM CRABB.
11. ix. DAVID B. ROSE, b. 10 Aug 1829, New Paltz, Ulster Co., NY; d. 07 Dec 1902, buried Denmark Twp. Cem, Reese, MI.
12. x. LORETTA M. ROSE, b. 1832, abt 1823? in NY.

4. CATHARINE² ROSE (*JOHN*¹) was born Abt. 1776 in NY state probably Ulster County, and died Aft. 30 Dec 1841 in Bengal, Clinton Co., Mich. She married WILLIAM DRAKE 14 Oct 1793 in Orange County NY, son of JOSIAH DRAKE and ANTJE JANNSSEN. He was born 26 Dec 1773 in (New Hackensack, Dutchess Co., NY a part of the town of Fishkill) (Aug 28, 1774 bp. New Hackensack, town Fishkill, Dutchess Co.), and died Aft. 1841 in Bengal, Clinton Co., Mich. (Oak Ridge Cem.?).

Notes for CATHARINE ROSE:

Catherine was the daughter of John & Catherine Rose of Ulster Co., NY - through the will of John Rose. The family was out of New Jersey. Catherine had a brother Jacob. She also had a nephew, Aaron who went West to Oregon and for whom the town of Roseburgh Oregon is named. (from the Rose Family Association--Christine Rose, CG, CGL, FASG)

Catharine was listed as the wife of Wm. Drake and was left $10 dollars in her father's will to buy mourning with.

Oddly, there is no mention of Catherine anywhere in all of Clinton Co, that I have been able to find. I had thought it very likely that William's wife was a woman named Hannah as she is the oldest Drake I could find. Maybe you know who she is. Hannah Drake is buried in the Elsie Village Cemetery in Elsie. She was born 1789 and died 1864. I managed to find her on the 1860 census in Duplain Twp. living with Sylvester and Maria Carter. (I can lookup the roll number if you want it.)

Hope Hatch located Much of this information after the 1979 record was completed. She found many Drake Descendents living in Michigan that we never knew existed. (Hope is the wife of Clyde Hatch; a descendent of John Rodman Drake)

New info:

Michael Boyer O'Leary. who is trying to straighten out the several William Drake's that are listed (" In search of William Drake") which puts our William's birthplace as New Hackensack, Dutchess Co., NY and his birthdate as Dec 26, 1773. Our William is listed as WmRose. We know from Census, Steuben Co History and Michigan Census information that he had to have been born about 1773. -- But, there is also a Wm73 listed in Mr. O'Leary's work. I believe they are the same William)

Thanks to this info received Jan 5, 2000 from Michael Boyer O'Leary's work "In Search of William Drake" we now had a lead to find the info we needed to Prove both William's birthdate and also prove our info was correct on who his parents were.

I sent Hope Hatch a copy of Michael Boyer O'Leary's E-mail, She discovered and sent me the information found in the Library in Syracuse, what she first thought was the Birth of William to Josiah and Anntje Jansen, turned out to be the Baptism of William.

That Date was Aug 28, 1774, this information was found In Col 2 New Hackensack: New Hackensack is in Dutchess Co, NY in the town of Fishkill. "The Records of the Refomed Dutch Church of New Hackensack, Dutchess Co. NY, Vol V of Collections of the Dutchess Co., Hist. Soc. ed. by Tower

C5:

William was (bp) Aug 28, 1774 son of Jesajas Drake witnessed by Richard Janssen & his wife) (The Doherty book has Richard's last name as Hanssen) This info from Hope should have been listed as baptism not birth. (This confirmed what I had received on Line from Michael O'Leary)

In the 1980's Hope found that:

William and Catherine Rose Drake were Married at the 1st Reformed Dutch Church of Poughkeepsie, Orange Co., New York on the 14th of October 1793 (one letter has the date as 1798 - it is possible that the copy is poor and what looks like a 3 & is actually an 8) Film #533-472 (I just recently found that part of Ulster county was apparently taken from Orange County.) (I think one of these two ladies sent Hope the Xerox copy of the Wedding info for Wm & Catherine

Mrs. Merie Taylor's Husband descended from Levi Drake. (of Andrews, In.)

Janet Snyder also wrote Hope Hatch that she was a gr.gr.gr.granddaughter of C.R. Drake, thru Lucinda Drake Eldridge's line. I found something in my notes that lead me to believe that is where the copy came from)

In 1800 Census William is in New Paltz, Ulster Co., NY.

The Listing for William Drake shows he has

2 M under 5 years, The two boys under 5 would have been Josiah and John Rodman Drake.

1 M 16-26 yrs. which is Probably William Himself.

In the book titled "Times and Tales of the Town of Lloyd" by Beatrice Hasbrouck Wadlin, published in 1974.

References to Our family can be found.

[page 129 to 133 describe the Penn Yan Settlement (a section within the Town of Lloyd). The Penn Yan Settlement was made in the year 1800 on a wedge shaped or triangular piece of land. Penn Yan was named after a settlement of the same name in Yates County, New York (reasons why are described in the article). It is an area that doesn't exist today.

One paragraph of this article reads:

"In Sherwood, Vol III, pg 52, other names are also listed among these Pang Yang people. they are: Peter and Thomas Berean. Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Rogers was the witch. "Old Bets" Abram Parmeter and Rachel his wife. Some of the first mentioned names had several brother or sons. Later Gilbert Drake, the elder and Johnathan Tomkins arrived."

Another paragraph:

"Up on the Peat Swamp Road a William Drake lived on the Amasa Martin place in 1805....."
pg 131

This information came from Dan Stifflear who has a copy of the book.

We have also included two photographs of the Drake Cemetery located on this land taken in 1999 by Beverly Jones.

Josiah Drake is also listed in this book on pg R11.

In 1808 William & Catherine are in Benton Center, Yates County, New York where they are admitted by letter into the 1st Baptist Church of Benton Center, Yates County, New York. (Source for this information - "Early Settlers of NY Book 1 Vol. 3 pg 117")

In 1809, John joins "Admitted" the First Baptist Church of Benton Center, Yates County, NY by Baptism.

By 1810 they have moved to Prattsburgh, Steuben County, NY (Ingleside was once part of Prattsburgh and known as Riker's Hollow) with Thomas Riker who must have come west with them from Ulster County. (quoting from a letter from Hope dated 2/12/1985 she states that "on the 1810 census, I found the trio, Michael Keith, Thomas Riker and Wm. Drake in Steuben Co-Bath, NY (Prattsburg had not been incorporated as a town in this Census). All living in the same area." the next paragraph she says that M.Keith was alone in Ingleside when the other two arrived."

Note:

(the 1790 Census of New Paltz we find: Josiah Drake, Thomas Riker, John Riker & John Riker Jr. in Ulster County living near to each other) from Hope Hatch

(In one letter from Hope Hatch, she says that she found William is mentioned -- "William Drake was an early settler of Prattsburgh Township, Steuben Co., NY")

I found this February 2008 -- this confirmed the info from Hope Hatch

The West Hill settlement was commenced in 1805, by Stephen Prentiss, Warham Parsons, and Aaron Cook. The Settlement of Riker's Hollow was commenced in 1807, by Michael Keith, who joined in 1810, by Thomas Riker, John Riker, and William Drake.

In the 1810 Census Records for Bath, Steuben County, NY. Prattsburg was listed in the Bath Census in 1810 as Prattsburg was not yet incorporated.

Wm. Drake is listed in Bath, Steuben Co., NY

He had 3 M under the age of 10 (one would have been Cornelius R. born 1805 in Ulster Co) and the other two we do not have names for b. between 1801 and 1810) There is also 1 F under the age of 10 (which we have recently put a name to:

Polly b. between 1801 and 1810) There are 2 M listed 10 to 16

(which would be Josiah b. 1797 and John Rodman b. 1799)

William is listed as being between 26 and 45

1 F between 26 and 45 would have been Catharine Rose Drake.

In 1820 Census William is again listed in Prattsburg.

He has 1 M under 10 which was Uriah b. abt 1813 he would have been 7

1 M between 10 and 16 which was Cornelius R. would have been 15

1M military age between 16 and 18 which could have been any one of the 4 M. 16-26

4 M between 16 and 26 Josiah would have been 23

John Rodman would have been 21

the 2 we don't have names for.

1 M 45+ William

1 F under 10 most likely Polly would have made her born abt 1809 or 10

1 F between 26 and 45 Catharine Rose Drake

In about 1824 William's Brother Gilbert moves to Prattsburg. In the 1830 Census, Gilbert Drake is living next to John Rodman Drake, his nephew.

1825 NY State Census Lists

5 M Cornelius, Uriah, (Josiah?? or was he married and moved away??), Levi b. 1821 or 1823, William and/or one of the sons we don't have a name for.

2 F Polly and Catharine.

1 listed as Military Duty (Josiah??) or another son??

1 Voter (William??)

1 F under 16 unmarried (Polly)

By the time of this Census John Rodman was married to Polly Morse they married 2/26/1824.

1830 Census Lists

1 M 10 to 15 which would have been Uriah

Cornelius R. married in 1828.

1 F. 15 to 20 --Polly

1 M 50 to 60 -- William

1 F 40 to 50 -- Catharine

Notes: in attempting to locate what happened to Josiah Drake, William & Catharine's son.

We know that Gilbert's son lived in Michigan

We don't know what happened to William's son Josiah.

We don't know what the possible names of William's other two children could be.

In 1830 Josiah, William's son would have been 33, so it is possible that your Wayne Co, Palmyra could be this Josiah. but giving the 60 yr old Carp Josiah Drake was probably his father, living in Palmyra, I would guess this is not the one we are looking for.

From what we know about Gilbert's Josiah, your info for Josiah of Kent Co. Gaines Mich. is most likely Gilbert's son also known as Josiak in our family History. As that was how his name was spelled when his Deposition was written. His Death Certificate is spelled Josiah and Gilbert is listed as his Father.

The Josiah born in Ulster Co, living in Rochester is to young age 20.

It is possible if he served in the military & that he died???, or Decided he liked where ever he was and stayed there. Or another possibility made the Military a career.??

The location of our Josiah son of William is still in question.

It wasn't until the End of October 1999 that we finally had any information on their daughter, Polly. We still don't have a birthdate for her. It was given to us by Beverly Jones of Endicott, NY, who is also descendant of Gilbert.

We knew they had four sons (#5 is a daughter that Hope had found listed in Census Records, but We could not locate a name for her or where she might have lived until Beverly shared her ggrandfathers deposition with us. (I sort of thought this girl might have been a daughter-in-law, but, Josiah's depo. proved Hope correct again.)

After 1830 Census:

William and Catherine part with their Son, John Rodman Drake.

William and Catherine removed to Michigan and are found in 1832. They first settled in Washtenaw County and lived there for a short time before coming to Bengal, Clinton County, MI. Where they are listed as the second settlers in the town.

(Mrs. Merie Taylor's Husband descended from Levi Drake. (of Andrews, In.)

Janet Snyder also wrote Hope Hatch that she was a gr.gr.gr.granddaughter of C.R. Drake, thru Lucinda Drake Eldridge's line.

(In a letter dated Feb 14, 1988, she stated that she had found)

"In Clinton County History" that:

"In the fall 1838 The second family moved into the Township of Bengal, Clinton County, Michigan. They were William Drake and wife, with their three sons, two married and one single. Cornelius R. Drake, Uriah Drake, and Levi Drake. They settled on the East half of North West and

Southwest quarter of Section 30 which was divided among the sons: C.R. taking the south part (55 acres)

Uriah the middle part (50 acres) and

Levi the North (55 acres). This history also states that "The widows of C.R. and Uriah are still living on their homeland ", Levi moved into Dallas Township where he still lives.

(note: this was what was copied from the article, not the actual article in 1988.)

Bonnie McVicar-Briggs has sent me an actual copy of this article. I will include it in the Picture object file.

In his research he which puts William's birthplace as New Hackensack, Dutchess Co., NY and his birthdate as Dec 26, 1773). Our William is listed as WmRose AND Wm73 in Mr. O'Leary's work.)

This info received Jan 5, 2000 thanks to Michael Boyer O'Leary's work "In Search of William Drake"

Hope Hatch using a copy of Michael Boyer O'Leary's E-mail, to pindown and discover the actual info, Which she then send me. This information was found in the Library in Syracuse.

Today, I referred to THE RECORDS OF THE REFORMED DUTCH CHURCH OF NEW HACKENSACK, DOUTCHESS CO., NY VOL.V OF THE COLLECTIONS OF THE DUTCHESS CO HIST. SOC. ed by Tower: LN48, N44, C5

I found:

1. William's birth or baptism as Aug 28, 1774.

William was bp Aug 28, 1774 son of Jesajas Drake and Antje (Janssen, witnessed by Richard Janssen & his wife)

2. Witnesses Listed: Richard Janssen & his wife

3. Father's Name Jesayas.

(Hope also found a marriage Record for Richard Janssen and New Hackensack is in Dutchess Co., in the town of Fishkill.

Further, on pg 99, I found the marriage of Richard Janssen April 18, 1772: Richard Janssen young man & Margrietje Steenberg young woman, both born & res. in Pochkeepsie Prect.

N.B. The bride born in Beekmans Prect. (1)

Also on page 19: born to Johannes Janssen & Grietje Steenberg, Johannes, Nov 19, 1773 (Entry made Jan 23, 1774) witnesses.
from Hope Hatch

I had received The Info Re: William's birth from Michael Boyer O'Leary which he had located in the Doherty Book: NOTE: (The Doherty book has Richard's last name as Hanssen) The Library's records spelled the last name as Janssen (possibly a relative of Antje), I hate to say it, but I would think what Hope copied was the Correct spelling especially in light of the Marriage record she included.

These witnesses may also be a clue in finding more on Antje Jansenn's family. Barb

This is what is posted on Michael Boyer O'Leary's site the last time I checked:

William (sometimes recorded as "Willem"), b. 26 Dec 1773 to Jesayas and Antje (Janssen) Drake in Hackensack, bapt. Aug 28, 1774, md. 14 Oct 1793 (or 1798), 1st Reformed Dutch Church of Poughkeepsie, Orange, NY, to Catherine Rose, d/o John and Catherine Rose of Ulster County NY. Found in Benton Center Yates Co., NY transferred by letter to the Benton Center Baptist Church in about 1808 (Early Settlers of NY book 1 V3 pg 117). They also were in Rikers Hollow which is now called Ingleside near Prattsburg NY Abt 1810.

By about 1832, they were recorded in Washtenaw County and are later recorded as the second settlers of Bengal, Clinton, MI about 1838 (Clinton County History). William and Catherine had five or six children: John R., b. Sept 7, 1799, Cornelius R., b. Aug 24, 1805, Uriah, b. 1812, Levi, b. 1823, Polly, b. ??, and Josiah, b. 8 Oct 1797 [see Doherty, p.471, for this Josiah].

E-Mail Messages giving more information:

I checked the Doherty book and there are three relevant listings for you:

1. on p.469 in the "Other and Unplaced Drakes" section, Doherty gives "Jesias Drake and wife Antje Jansenn had son Willem b. 26 Dec 1773 and bp. 28 Aug 1774 with Sp. Richard Hansenn and his wife. [NHRCh]. A Josias Drake was in Clinton in 1800 at 1-0-1-1-0 and 3-0-1-0-0 and was between Jacob I. Deane and Samuel Morey. Sias [sic] Drake was assessed in 1801 in Clinton on $50 personal property only and paid a tax of $.11." I'm not sure why he links the Jesias listed here as Willem's father to the one on record in Clinton.
2. on p.471 in the "Other and Unplaced Drakes" section, Doherty gives "William Drake and Catherine Rose had son Josiah, b. 8 Oct 1797, bp. 14 Jan 1798. [PRCh]" Unfortunately, I don't have the page where he explains the PRCh abbreviation. Can look on my next NEHGS trip, or perhaps it's a familiar abbrev for you. Maybe Poughkeepsie Reformed Church?
3. on p.469 in the "Other and Unplaced Drakes" section, Doherty gives: "Josiah Drake was born 1 July 1750 at Fishkill but lived in New Paltz when he enlisted. He applied for his pension 19 April 1833 when living at the latter place. No family was noted in his application. [Rev Pens S10587]."

Given 1 and 2, it looks like we're dealing with two distinct Josiah's, and it also looks like we should find out what PRCh was so that you can confidently add the Josiah in #2 to your list of kids for Wm and Catherine.

Rgds,

Michael (mboleary@MIT.EDU (Michael Boyer O'Leary)

The book is Frank J. Doherty, "Settlers of the Beekman Patent, Dutchess County, NY, An Historical and Geneal. Study of all the 18th Century Settlers in the Patent." (Pleasant Valley, NY: 1997).

The reference to Josiah's birth to William and Catherine (Rose) Drake is one p.471 and cites "PRCh" records. I don't have the paper copy here in my office, but can check for additional details (and perhaps explanation of "PR") when I get home. I found the book at the NEHGS Library here in Boston. It's quite well done. Alpha by family for all people whose names appear in the records for the area. It includes "my" William and Eunice, but unfortunately describes them as "unplaced." Will email again tonight or tomorrow once I check paper files.

Michael (mboleary@MIT.EDU (Michael Boyer O'Leary)

Mr. Doherty also sent a copy of His Drake pages. But I could find nothing that Michael had not already sent.

4. Ancestry.com just posted new database of southeastern NY records. That "PRCh" record that was in the Doherty book, but for which I couldn't find the full text, was in the new database. As I suspected, PR is Poughkeepsie Reformed. Here's the full citation:

Poughkeepsie Reformed Church: 1716-1824

Think that makes it a definite -- i.e., that this Josiah should be added to your list of kids for Wm and Catherine. When/if you find out what happened to this Josiah (e.g., died young?), please let me know.

A bit of interesting if useless information contained in a historical calendar for Naples, NY

For the date March 28 1817 "After the Preslers (or Presslers), Drakes, and Palmateers moved into Rikers' Hollow, they got the U. S. Government to open a post office in the hamlet."

A bit of follow up on the item about the Ingleside Post Office. Violet and I both remember the Pressler Store in Ingleside where the Post Office had been. There was, and as far as I know, still is, a display of a "Country Store" in the Rochester Museum and Science Center, East Avenue, Rochester.

The mail boxes in the display are from the Ingleside Post Office.

There is a book located at the Briggs Library in St. Johns, MI called "CLINTON COUNTY CEMETERY TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS, CLINTON CO. MI" 929.3C copied and compiled by the Lansing Chapter of US Daughters of 1812 1938-39.(too fragile to copy so only have handwritten extractions.) William is located in the index as being on page 25. Unfortunately he is not found on that page. The page is part of the Oak Ridge Cemetery located in Section 30 of Bengal Township. Cornelius and Uriah are buried there with their families and I am pretty sure that this is where William and his wife would have been buried too. It is located on about an acre of ground on the Drake homestead. The cemetery was very run down and unkept the last time I was there 3 years ago. Many of the headstones are probably there, but have fallen and are buried in the weeds now. We hope to be able to clean and restore it at some point. (Bonnie McVicar-Briggs)

Barb,

I was looking through some of the databases on Ancestry tonight and found these. I don't know if you have them yet or not.

New York Births and Baptisms, Southeast Region, 1660-1916

Description:

First settled by the Dutch in the 17th Century and later acquired by the British, New York is arguably one of the most important states in the history of the United States. Compiled by Arthur and Nancy Kelly, this collection of birth and baptism records was taken from the New York church registers of 1660-1916. It contains over 75,000 records from Dutchess, Greene, Putnam, Rockland, Ulster, and Westchester counties and provides details on more than 300,000 individuals. In addition to the child's name and date of birth or baptism, researchers can find information on parents' names, names of sponsors, and notes included in these vital records. Further information and books from which these records were taken can be obtained from Arthur and Nancy Kelly, 60 Cedar Heights Road, Rhinebeck, NY, 12572.

This database contains new material provided Arthur Kelly and previously posted material under the title New York Births and Baptisms.

From the WESTERN STAR, Friday, August 23, 1878, vol. 1, No. 44, p. 3, col. 1 (Roseburg, Ore. weekly):

ABRAM ROSE -- On the 18th day of August 1878, Mr. Abram Rose died in Roseburg at the ripe age of seventy seven years. The deceased was a brother of Mr. Aaron Rose, of his city, and has quite a number of relatives residing in the county. He was born in Dutchess County, New York in the year 1802 and filled many important official positions in that country.

He came to Oregon about fifteen years ago, we do not remember of the year of his arrival. Esquire Rose as he was familiarly designed, occupied several county offices, which he filled with credit to himself. His loss is much regretted by a large circle of friends.

I do not know where Philip and Alzuera Rose are buried. I don't know if Diane Reed may know. She doesn't reply to my questions. If you know where Birch Run is, that is where you will find Sarah Rose and David Bidwell's burial place.

There is the Birch Run Cemetery on the Dixie Highway. The cemetery is 2 miles from the Prime Outlets Mall. You get out of the mall, turn left on Birch Run Road and make a left on the Dixie Highway and one mile and a half later, you will find the cemetery and make a right.

Their burial place is on the North Right corner of the cemetery and I mean in the North right CORNER. They have a very nice tombstone. They had money my aunt Kelly said. She suspects David and Sarah were snots just because Nina was.

I do not own any old pictures on my mom's side but some on my dad's side. The Bidwell genealogy forum is something to try out. We have went as far as we could on the Bidwells alone.

I am suprised of what I found out on my ancestry from Diane's website. If you find out anymore information on the Bidwells or the Roses, please let me know. Who knows if we descend from any royal families from Medieval Times.

On Nina's husband's (Clarence Adrian Reed) side of the family, I descend from Robert Earl of Gloucester who was the illiegitamate son of Henry I King of England through the Tuttlles, Ives, Yales, Gruffydd's, le Stanges, de Albini, de Someri, de Meschines, Fitz Robert, and then Robert Earl of Gloucester (c.1088 to 1147).

Thank you for all of your help,

Justin Theodore Maitland.

Hi Sue,

Have been very busy the last week and did not have a chance to let you know that we went back down to Forest Hill Cem., in Ann Arbor, MI. We located a second Drake plot that did not find the first time. It has Gouverneur Drake 1802 - 1880 and Almira Rose Drake 1816 - 1873 so it looks like my b.1810 date in incorrect.

This plot has a very tall monument with Drake on one side and Marshall on the opposite side.

The smaller stones have:

Ellen Estell Drake 1854 - 1895,
Almira Rose Drake 1816 - 1873,
Gouverneur Drake 1802 - 1880,

Dell A. Drake 1852 - 1936,
Edward Drake 1842 - 1843,
Esther Maria Marshall 1870 - 1872,
Father, Job A. Marshall 1847 - 1920,
Mother, Esther A. Marshall 1847 - 1926,
Bessie Marshall 1884 - 1954.

Also, went down to the Lodi cemetery and found many Drake's scattered around the cemetery. Have not had a chance to get it all straightened out yet. Will not have time to work on records for a couple of weeks but will get back to them as soon as possible.

Sue, is your ancestor Phillip A. Rose, 10 Oct. 1811 and then which line?

Best regards

Lee

Notes for DAVID B. ROSE:

From: History of Tuscola and Bay Counties, Michigan, published 1883, under the village of Watrousville, page 66 (condensed):

David B. Rose was born in Ulster Co., N.Y. in 1829, and at the age of nine years came with his parents to Washtenaw County, Mich., where he remained until 1860, when he removed to Tuscola County, and located on the farm where he now resides. He enlisted in 1862 in the Seventh Michigan Cavalry, Colonel Mann commanding, and served three years, and was in many battles. At Gettysburg he was wounded in the face by a fragment of shell, and was taken prisoner in June, Libby, Savannah and other prisons, and at the last found himself with many other sick prisoners, in St. Louis, where he was soon thereafter discharged as unfit for duty. He was married in 1853 to Miss A. B. Wilson of the State of New York, and has two children.

He served in the Civil War. From his file (National Archives), the volunteer enlistment from Town of Juinetta, Tuscola Co., Mich., David B. Rose, born in Ulster Co., N.Y., aged 33, by occupation a farmer, dated 11 Sept. 1862 and signed as David B. Rose. Another volunteer enlistment paper shows him born in New Paltz, New York, dated at East Saginaw 16 Sept. 1862. A form in the pension file shows he married Hannah B. Wilson, 18 September 1853 by C. L. Dunning, Minister ME Church, and has one living child, Walter H. Rose b. May 2, 1859. This was signed June 4, 1898. Another form in the pension file shows he married "Annah B. Wilson" at Weedesport, Cayuga Co., N.Y., by C. L. Duning, Minister, and that he has living Children: Walter H. b. May 2, 1859 and May Rose b. Aug 21, 1863. This is dated Oct. 31, 1898. (There is no explanation given as to why she is not on the other form.). An affidavit of George M. Rose Sr. aged 60, po Reese --?, Tuscola Co., Mich., states that David B. Rose died about Dec 11, 1902, and that claimant (widow) has not remarried.

From his death certificate filed with the State Department of Health, Michigan:

David B. Rose: Tuscola Co., Mich., village of Reese, Mar., d. 12/11/1902, mar. 30 years, 3 children, 2 living, farmer, d. age 73, b. Aug 10, 1829, New York, father: Wm Rose b. She was born 04 Apr 1804 in Gorham, Ontario Co., NY, and died 11 Oct 1868 in Ingleside, N Y - Burial-Old Ingleside Cem. age 64y10m7d.

Notes for JOHN RODMAN DRAKE:

John and Polly were the first of our ancestors listed in the 1913 and 1956 and 1979 Family Trees.

Note**

(Hope Hatch, the wife of a descendant of the 05 branch of John & Polly's family has been able to trace back 2 more generations.)

Since the 1979 Family Record we have found information on Polly's ancestors. (Nancy Tuttle found the information in an old letter found in her Aunt's papers after she passed away.)

John Rodman Drake was baptized and joined the 1st Baptist Church of Benton Center, Yates County, NY in 1809.

Steuben County History also states that John Rodman Drake was a farmer, Shingle Maker, Politician (registered Democrat). He served as Commissioner of Highways and was an officer in the State Militia, later he mfg. shingles and several other things.

(from the 1956 Drake record Guy Springsteel wrote) "John Rodman Drake was a prosperous farmer and owned considerable land at the time of his death. The original homestead and home existed and was owned by (043) John R. Drake and His daughter (0435) Katie until it was sold in the 1950's. Some time after that it burned. John Rodman gave each of his sons and daughters land as they married.

John & Polly were very religious and traveled into nearby Naples for services weekly. They were contributors to the general welfare of their community."

They had 12 Children which was the largest family recorded in the family history until the 1980's when Hope Hatch located his Uncle Gilbert who had 13 children. Hope also Located John's three Brothers and added their families to this history.

More has been added to this history by locating information on Polly Morse's family and Ruth Dunham's family.

Riker's Hollow was the original name of Ingleside. It is located in Steuben County of New York State.

Census Records show that after William, JRD's father and brothers moved west, that there was a significant addition of Acreage & sheep, to the holdings of John Rodman Drake.

	1825	1835
Acres	8	40
Cattle	11	4
Horse	1	1
Sheep	8	29
Hogs	3	5
fulled cloth	3yrds	15yrds
Fl or woolen	40 yrds	40 yrds
linen, cotton	30	20

Notes for POLLY A. MORSE:

Thanks to a letter found by Nancy Tuttle, in her Aunt Ethel's papers, written to Edward in 1902, it gave an account of Polly's family for 3 Generations.
(1979 record) (7/14/2000) I have asked Nancy to check and see if she can locate who wrote this letter to Edward Drake.

Children of JOHN DRAKE and POLLY MORSE are:

- 33. i. WILLIAM F.⁴ DRAKE, b. 11 Mar 1825, Ingleside, NY; d. 09 Jan 1907, Leslie, Michigan.

14. CORNELIUS R.³ DRAKE (CATHARINE² ROSE, JOHN¹) was born 24 Aug 1805 in Prattsburg, Steuben Co., N.Y. from Census age should be born 1805 had a second ref. Bible Record also has 1805 (another Ref. has 1803) (I think Cornelius was born in Ulster Co, before Wm. & Catherine came to Steuben Co. abt 1810), and died 24 Dec 1860 in is Tombstone date & age 57y 4 mo. He married ANNA MARIA (MARIAH) GRAVES 1828 in Steuben Co., N.Y. -- Bible Record, daughter of ISRAEL GRAVES and ZAMA NIMS. She was born 16 Feb 1812 in Middlesex, Orleans Co., NY (tombstone date is different had same month and day 1811, and died 15 Nov 1898 in Bengal, Clinton Co., Mich..

Notes for CORNELIUS R. DRAKE:

Cornelius was born in Prattsburg, Steuben Co., NY and is burried in Oak Ridge Cem -Southwest of St John, Clinton co., Michigan

Oak Ridge Cemetery was taken from a parsel of CR's farm

We had two dates for the birth of Cornelius 1805 and 1803, but the 1850 census in Michigan, gives and age that would be more consistant with 1805.

Land ownership: looking for copy of Deed:::

The BLM records are only those where the buyer was the first owner of the land and bought it from the government. Since Cornelius bought the land in Clinton from an Ebenezer Sprague, it wouldn't be there.

CLINTON COUNTY AND SHIAWASSEE COUNTY HISTORY

EXTRACTS:

William Drake and his wife and two married sons and one single son were the 2nd family to settle in Bengal Township in Clinton Co. in 1838. He bought the East 1/2 of the N. W. and S.W. quarter of section 30.

C. R. Drake taking the south part containing 55 acres.

Uriah taking the mid-portion of 50 acres.

Levi taking the north 55 acres.

Levi later moved to Dallas Township.

C. R. 's and Uriah's widows were still on their property in 1880.

Jan. 1, 1841, Wm. Drake received $16.00 in wolf bounties and $8.00 on Oct. 22, 1841.

Cornelius Drake got $16.00 on Dec. 30, 1841 in wolf bounties and $12.00 on Oct. 18, 1844.

In 1840 Uriah Drake was selected to serve on the 1840 jury.

Uriah was a legal voter in 1841 at Bengal Township's organization and was elected Constable for Bengal Twp. on April 23, 1841

He was elected to the Highway Commission in 1842.

April 26, 1845, Levi Drake was elected as Constable in a special election.

Uriah Drake was elected as Township Supervisor in 1844 but resigned.

May 2, 1846, Uriah was elected as a School Inspector of the 1st school in Bengal.

April 19, 1852, Wm. Drake of Rochester, New York, bought the N.W. corner of Section 29 in Riley Twp.

In 1854 Uriah was elected as a Justice of the Peace.

In Nov. 1852 Wm. L. Drake bought property in section 21 of Lebanon Twp.

April 3. 1883, Uriah was again elected as Constable of Bengal Twp.

April 1889 Uriah Drake was elected Justice of the Peace in Lebanon Twp.

EXTRACTION:

1863 - A cemeteries association of Bengal twp. was born and the 1st cemetery was on the 1/2 acre adjoining the Bray Farm.

Later another cemetery was at the northside of town in the Frink Neighborhood.

(THIS HAS BEEN INCLUDED HERE ONLY AS RELATIVES ARE BURIED HERE.)

Michigan Census 1840

This records shows the household of William Drake, his wife and son, Levi.

Williams wife's name is not entered. It only says wife. Levi is listed as being 17 years old.

It would seem from this record that both Cornelius and Uriah were the married sons at the time William bought property and moved to Bengal Twp. in 1838. (Bonnie Briggs)

1870 Michigan Census
Clinton Co. , Bengal Twp.
Reel #669, page 14 line 22, Dwelling # 138, Family # 136

This Census record shows that in 1870 Alindia Drake lived alone with her mother Anna M.

Anna would be the widow of Cornelius R. Drake.

Most of her family is buried at the Oak Ridge Cemetery in Sec30 of Bengal Township, Clinton Co. There is a grave for a "Celinda wife of James C. White". I think this may be Alendia real name. The records we used to get her name are so old and the hand writing so hard to read that we may have miss read them. The grave is next to Maria A. Hammond, who is Anna M. Drake, Alendia's sister.

x. ONE MISSING DRAKE.

15. POLLY "MARY"³ DRAKE (CATHARINE² ROSE, JOHN¹) was born Bet. 1815 - 1820 in poss. 1816 or 18 as yr of birth---from 1860 census (Bet. 1810 - 1820 from NY Census info) listed as 44 in 1860 MI Census listed as 47 in 1850 MI Census, and died 04 Feb 1861 in 42yr 10m 0d wife of Thomas. She married THOMAS WILLSON 19 Apr 1837 in Washtenaw, MI by Otis TYLER, J.P. Book O, p. 301. He was born Abt. 1815 in England from death age born about 1810, and died 20 May 1885 in 75yr. 2m 0d buried in South Riley Township Cem. Clinton Co, MI.

Notes for POLLY "MARY" DRAKE:

The actual record from Washtenaw Co., Michigan for the marriage of Thomas WILSON and Mary DRAKE, 18 Apr. 1837, does not say 'Polly' but 'Mary'.

The only children that I have listed right now, are those that we found on the Census for 1850 & 1860. Haven't put anything else together. I will go through my material again soon, and see if I can find anything else.

NOTE:(Polly's yr of birth has been very difficult to pin down and each census seems to put her age at a different year of birth. If she was under 16 in 1825 she would have been born bef. 1809, but if the info on her tombstone is correct she would have been born 1816 or 1818 gives her age as 42y10m0d in 1861 when she passed away)

When in 1860 census I found the following for a Thomas Wilson and Wife Mary - is this the same as your Thomas Wilson, and Mary 'Polly' Drake?

1860 Watertown, Clinton Co., MI

WILSON, Thoams - age 48, farmer 4000/620 b. England X

Mary, age 44, b. NY X

Nancy, age 14, b. MI dau

George H., age 12, b. MI son

Mary A., age 9, b. MI dau.

Emily, age 8, b. MI dau

Harriet E., age 1, b. MI dau.

Sorry, forgot to write down the Image #, or dwelling/family #'s, but can go back and get them if you don't have it, and this is the same Thomas Wilson?

The 'X' stands for 'can't read or write'.

I found a piece that maybe of interest in your Drake report. On page 31 (that is the page I have counted)

Note: Polly Drake (Mary?) (dau of Catherine Rose & Wm Drake) married 1837 to Thomas Wilson (Washtenaw Co. MI) by J.P. Otis Tyler.

J. P. Otis Tyler is the person that married Mercy Ann Rose.

So Polly was married by her cousin-in-law. Mercy Ann Rose was the dau of Wm Rose and Elizabeth Brown; our Catharine being sister to Wm. Rose.

Anyway I thought that was interesting.

Now I can check on the J.P Otis Tyler and maybe find more information on this family.. from Susan Schultz in MI. decendent of William Rose.

Hi Barb,

I am sorting all my Rose/Drake folders so that maybe I will know what I am looking at. I think I may of found something of interest.

Feb 01 when you wrote that you found that a Polly Drake was dau of Catherine Rose/Wm Drake b. bet 1801-1812 1825 NYS census. she was under 16 :& unmarried.

(married later to a Thomas Wilson)
Catherine Rose Drake dau of John & Catherine Rose

I found in my Washtenaw Co. MI marriages
#301 Thomas Willson to Mary (Could this be Polly?) Drake on 19 April 1837 by Otis Taylor, J.P.
(no ages were given)

Otis Taylor is hus of Mercy Ann Rose Taylor dau of William Rose/Elizabeth Brown.
With William being the brother to the mother Catherine Rose Drake.

There are two other Willson names in the data.
475 Joseph Willson and Nancy Bouck, 4 July 1830: Esek Pray JP
#242 William D. Willson and Rebecca (?) Ensley, 23 May 1836 in Northfield, by Joshua G.
Leland JP

Possible brothers? Notice the name spelled with two L's.

I sure hope all are in the right line up!!!

What do you think? Or do you already have this info??? Thank goodness for my book on nick names from the past..That is what got me thinking Polly was Mary since Polly is nickname.

Susan

Children of POLLY DRAKE and THOMAS WILLSON are:

- i. JOHN W.⁴ WILSON, b. Abt. 1839, Is it possible this John died, because Thomas has another child John with his second wife??.
- ii. ANNA (CATHERINE) WILSON, b. Abt. 1842, Catharine Anna Wilson; m. PHILIP COREY.
- iii. JANE WILSON, b. Abt. 1844.
- iv. NANCY M. WILSON, b. Abt. 1845.
- v. GEORGE K. WILSON, b. Abt. 1849, cem dates 1847-1836.

Notes for GEORGE K. WILSON:

There is also a George E buried in South Riley Township Cemetery, Riley Twp, Clinton

Notes for URIAH DRAKE:
[Bonnie Briggs]

1870 Michigan Census
Bengal Twp. Clinton Co.
Reel # 669, page 14, line 34, Dwelling # 141, Family # 139

This record shows a Nancy Drake, age 50, born in New York, and a son Lewis G. Drake, age 21, born in Michigan. It also shows a Harriet A. Osborne, age 19, born in Michigan and a Ellen A. Drake, age 3 months, born in Michigan.

This is the widow of Uriah Drake.

There seems to be a discrepancy concerning the date of death for Uriah Drake. Articles in the "History of Shiawassee and Clinton Counties show Uriah to be both dead and alive in 1883. First it says that his widow was still on his land in 1880 and then it states that he was Justice of the peace in 1883. His headstone shows that he died at age 43 on Jan. 5, 1855. He is buried at Oakridge Cemetery on Taft Rd. in Section 30 of Bengal Twp. in Clinton county MI.

Uriah DRAKE 1812-1850/60
a biography

Uriah DRAKE was born abt 1812 in Ulster County, New York (probably at New Paltz) and was the son of William DRAKE and Catherine ROSE. He married Nancy BARNEY abt 1831, place of marriage unknown (but probably Prattsburg, Steuben County, NY). Nancy BARNEY was born 12 May 1812 in Yates County, NY, the daughter of Jacob BARNEY and Elizabeth WILSON.

Uriah DRAKE and Nancy BARNEY had the following children:

* Louisa DRAKE b. 1831, NY who married (1) Gideon Bowdish TRIPP (2) William Henry LACKEY

* Sarah C DRAKE b. 1834, MI who married William Henry LACKEY

* John DRAKE b. 1838, MI who married Elizabeth JONES

* Jacob DRAKE b. 1840, MI who married Hannah BROOKS

* Jane DRAKE b. 1841, MI

* Morris DRAKE b. 1843, MI who married Mary RICE

* Riley D DRAKE b. 20 Nov 1844, MI who married Sarah ROSE

* Lewis DRAKE b. 1848, MI

* Harriett A DRAKE b. 1850, MI who married George T OSBORNE

The Drake family first removed from Steuben County, New York to Washtenaw County, Michigan and thence to Clinton County, Michigan by 1838, settling in Bengal Township. In the History of Shiawassee, Uriah appears as a Supervisor of Highways and Justice of the Peace in 1839, taxpayer of Bengal Township in 1840, a Highway Commissioner and legal voter 1840, Treasurer in 1844, Justice of the Peace in 1845, School Inspector in 1848.

Uriah DRAKE died between 1850 and 1860. He is probably buried in the Oakridge Cemetery at St Johns, Clinton County, Michigan where many of the Drakes are interred.

Fowler is in Dallas Twp. Clinton Co. It's located on M-21 west of St. Johns and east of Pewamo. From the map it is in sections 11, 12, 13 & 14. Those four being a square and Fowler being in the middle of it. It is just west of Bengal Twp.

I looked in my History book and didn't find much on the 28th Infantry at all. I checked at Don Harvey's CW site and found a Francis A. Drake from Jackson in Co. D, but not Morris B. I am not sure his data base contains the name when a man transferred. I know one of the Voglers I have was in 2 different outfits and he is only listed in the first one. Checking other companies netted Isreal M. of Lawrence and James of Hartford in Co. F, Rueben of Newburg in Co. G. There were no others in the 28th.

Looking in the
1st Inf. Co. A, Jacob C. 27 of Washtenaw Co., Nathaniel P., 18, Jackson Co. Co. D.

2nd Inf Co. I Manning, 24, Calhoun Co.

3rd Inf., Co. A shows William H. age 25 of Kent Co. and Henry Lackey 31, Gr. Rapids, James F. age 20, of Portland, Ionia Co. Co. E., Francis F.

Lackey age 20 of Gr. Rapids in Co. F.,

4th Inf. Co. B, Franklin, 18 Lenawee Co.

I stopped at the end of the 4th Inf. I will try to find them tomorrow in the other rosters.

Here's what I have in my FTM file on John W.

I don't have anything on Morris for the military, and checking under the 1st Eng & Mech I only found,

Co. B., Philander D. 24, Gr. Rapids,
Co. C., Abraham H. 29, Gr. Rapids,
Co. G., John W. 23, Palmyra and Joshua C. 18, Palmyra,

I don't know why our John isn't there. I will search through the whole thing eventually though. It is just time consuming. LOL....

As you can see from above I have the same marriage info you have for them, so I don't know who this Elizabeth is. Both John and Morris out lived their wives. John died in 1918 and Morris in 1927. I am sure their death record is at the courthouse and I will add it to the list of things I need to find there. I don't know when I will be going, as my insomnia is so bad that I am sleeping mostly in the day time now. Even with 3 different meds to help me fall asleep, I am wide awake most of the night. I think it's my arthritis meds that I have to take at night is causing it, but I went off it and after just 2 days could barely walk from the arthritis. Once it warms up and the dampness is gone I will be back on track again.

Notes for SARAH JANE SHELDON:

Marriage record

1, DRAKE, LEVI DRAKE - SHELDON, SARAH - SHELDON, CLINTON,, 15 OCT 1848,, Divorce

This would seem to prove that Sarah and Levi were divorced. Found this in the Dibeau Collection, +, CLARK, DAVID - CLARK, SHELDON, ELIZABETH - SHELDON, CLINTON,, 24 AUG 1854,, and this, +, CLARK, SARAH E CLARK, CUSHMAN, MIAL - CUSHMAN, CLINTON,, 24 DEC 1876,,. There are two marriages for George Clark, one to Elizabeth Brown Holmes and the other to Laura Servis.

Notes for MARIA SUE SINCLAIR:

Children of LEVI DRAKE and SARAH SHELDON are:

- i. BENJAMIN⁴ DRAKE, b. 07 Aug 1848; d. 12 Aug 1861, Bengal, Clinton Co., Mich..

Notes for BENJAMIN DRAKE:

Benjamin was 13 year - 0 mo. 5 days Was killed when a sleigh load of barrel staves tipped over on him.

(The gravestone says 15 y-0m-5d. So I would guess this is correct.)

Double stone for Mary Edna Drake, daughter of William and Hester Drake, died Feb 10, 1902, age 10 mos 15 days and John Leroy Drake died Aug 12, 1861, age 4 mos 14 days. Mary Edna is the granddaughter of Levi Drake and Sarah Sheldon Drake. This stone is next to the one for Benjamin L. Drake, son of Levi and Sarah. This leads me to believe that John Leroy is the son of Levi and Sarah. My theory is that when William's daughter died, they used the same grave John had been buried in. This was a common practice in MI back then, and it would explain the single stone for both babies. Also notice that John died the same day Benjamin did. I think the accident (see next picture) killed both boys at the same time.

48. ii. LUCY ANN DRAKE, b. 08 Nov 1851, Clinton Co. MI; d. 01 Dec 1923, Ionia, Ionia Co., Michigan buried at Clear Lake Cemetery.

- iv. JOHN LEROY (POSSIBLY SON OF LEVI) DRAKE, b. 1861, Died same day as Benjamin; d. 12

Aug 1861, John Leroy Drake died Aug 12, 1861, age 4 mos 14 days..

Notes for AARON P. ROSE:

Aaron ventured as far as Oregon. The town of Roseburg Oregon is named after him.

From the report John Rose of Ulster Co., NY by the Rose Family Assoc. by Christine Rose:

In 1837 when he was twenty-four the family moved to Girard, Michigan. In 1838 Aaron was married to Minerva (Kelly was incorrect info from the Rose Assoc)...Kellogg is the correct last name.. In 1851 he left Coldwater, Michigan for Oregon by ox team, arriving in Oregon Aug 22, 1851, he filed a claim number 39 at the junction of Deer Creek and the South Umpqua River on Sept 25, 1851....he farmed, operated a hotel, butcher shop, general store and built a dam on the river. He was involved in a woolen mill and a flour mill. He first named his town Deer Creek and later Roseburg.....he was prominent in helping organize the new city and donated land and financial aid to many projects, among them land for the courthouse, churches, schools and a right-of-way and land for a station for the O. & C. Railroad. He helped with the Coos Bay Wagon Road from Roseburg to Coos Bay. Served as a member of the Territorial legislature from 1856 to 1857.

From the courthouse records of Branch County, Michigan are records of the purchase and sale of land of Aaron P. Rose. His wife died while there, and it may be for this reason that he decided later to remove from the area.

An interesting sketch appeared in a Branch County newspaper, confirming that Aaron Rose was indeed from Ulster County, New York.

Coldwater Republican, Fri. Jan 16, 1885, p. 1, in a column on "Early Days in Branch County" mentions early families of Monroe Co., NY. and Ulster Co., NY.... among those may be mentioned the families of James Haynes and James Fisk; while John Worden, Abraham Van Blarcom and Aaron Rose went directly from New Paltz, Ulster Co., and settled at Girard.....

From the tombstone of Aaron and his wife Sarah, from the Old Masonic section, Roseburg Memorial Gardens, quoted from Umpqua Chapter DAR, in Block 4, Lot 7, Row 1. One stone has the following:

Sarah, Wife of Aaron Rose, Sr., She was a kind and affectionate wife, A fond mother, and a friend to all. (no dates).

Aaron Rose, Sr., Founder of Roseburg, Pioneer of 1851 born June 20, 1813 died March 2, 1899 Yet when the body and the tomb are dust Still Still survives the memory of the just. (Masonic emblem).

The estate of Aaron rose was filed in Douglas Co., Oregon, and on petition of Lucy A. Mallory, Aaron M. Rose and Emily J. Martin, it is stated that he died intestate in Douglas co., 1 Mar. 1899 leaving real and personal property, that he leaves no widow, that Emily J. Martin, residing at Livermore, Calif., Lucy A. Mallory, residing at Portland, Ore., Aaron M. Rose, residing at Roseburg, Ore. and Cora Rose, residing at Roseburg, are the sole surviving heirs and next of kin. That each is above the age of 21 except Cora, who is about the age of 15. They petition to have Ica F. Rose, Esq. appointed administrator. Ack. by Lucy a. Mallory in Multnomah Co., Ore. 6 Mar 1899, and by the other in Douglas co. on 7 Mar. 1899. Inventory and appraisalment 29 Mar. 1899. Final Account 7 Apr. 1903.

Obituary of Aaron Rose was published in PLAINDEALER of 2 Mar. 1899:

Although not unexpected, the many friends of Aaron Rose, Sr., were started and grieved at the announcement of his death....Mr. Rose was a native of New York, but came from Michigan across the plains to Oregon, arriving at this point Sept 23, 1851, and located the donation claim on which the original town of Roseburg is now situated, and where he has since resided. He always manifested a live interest in the prosperity of his native city and country, being always liberal and progressive, ready to give of his time and means to forward any worthy public enterprise. He numbered as his friends the whole population of the community, in which he lived, and scattered all over the land are to be found those who will hear with regret the new of his death....

Notes for JOB AUGUSTUS MARSHALL:

Hi Susan,

I noticed that when I sent you the information about the Job Marshall family, I had not entered Ester's two sisters that lived with Job and Ester in Benzonia Village, Benzonia County. In the 1910 census Della Drake is living with Job and Ester. She is listed as being Job's sister-in-law and is listed as being 75 years old. In the 1920 census Almira B. Drake is living with Job and Ester and she is listed as being 57 years old and the sister-in-law to Job Marshall. In 1917 Job sold a piece of property to Della Drake for One dollar in the village of Benzonia.

I do have a question, what is the name of the cemetery that is the stone with the names of Marshall and Drake on it. We do not live very far from Ann Arbor and I would love to go see it. I will send you pictures.

Also I would love to see those pictures of the Marshalls. Looking forward to hearing from you again.

From grave stone--The Old Belding Cemetery - also called the Free Methodist Cemetery is in Ionia County, the city of Belding. Charles E. Drake 04-25-1889 41 y-1 mo-7 da GAR marker-Engineers. The old 1956 record, had the 1899 date but this has proved to be wrong with this Cemetery date and also the date from the 1913 Record I am sure the 1889 date is correct. Also the fact that Hattie remarried in 1890 tells us that the 1899 date had to have been a type-o (DRAKE,HATTIE S DRAKE,SANDERS,ISAAC - re my subject line: my grandmother was Addie Mary (May) Drake (m. A R Springsteel)

Her mother: Hattie Smith (m. [1] Charles E Drake .. then she m. [2] Isaac Sanders.
I had given you the name of Edwin for ISAAC.
He is correctly ISAAC. Both husbands were killed in dynamite explosions. Both were farmers and one was extricating a tree stump and the other was dynamiting a large boulder.
I don't know which was which!! I have to research more on those items.
Chas Drake died/buried in Belding, Ionia Co. MI and I don't have the death info or anything on Isaac Sanders, but believe he died in WA state.
Hattie is buried in Mabton, WA.

Notes for AARON PAYNE DRAKE:

Aaron was born in Naples, NY and came West with his brother Charles and his Uncle to Leslie, Michigan. After his marriage he moved to Grand Rapids, Michigan where he is buried.

Aaron was the compiler of the Drake Record of 1913. Aaron is due a great deal of gratitude for compiling the Drake record of 1913, on which this 1956 record is based upon verbatim.
(from Guy Springsteel's 1956 Record)

From Michigan Resources on line, It appears that Aaron P. Drake may have served in the Civil War.

(Those from NY who served in Civil War living in Michigan)

(Drake, Aaron P. (H) Mason Wessels, Squire (A) Shepard Infantry 189th

(this could also be another Aaron Drake or else it was if not available before, but, I would have thought he would have mentioned it if he served in the Civil War in his 1913 Family History)B. Trott)

Notes for DELBERT (COOLEY) DRAKE:

Delbert Drake was the adopted son of Wyman and Mary Drake. He was in actuality, the son of Mary's sister.

Hi Wendy,
I Called Mrs. Blodgett for you.

Delbert Drake was the Son of Betsey Chapman Cooley daughter of Jessie Chapman who died in 1872 and Olive Hilton. The probate record of Jessie Chapman lists Betsey as Deceased so that would mean she died before 1872. Mrs Blodgett didn't have Betsey's husbands name.

Betsey had other Children, Franklin, William and Orson Cooley, and of Course Delbert.

Mrs Blodgett didn't know what happened to the other three children, thought the family moved up by Canandaigua but she wasn't sure.

Hope this helps.

Hi Barbara -

Please excuse the long delay in responding to your questions. My time management skills seem to be lacking during the last part of the year as the holidays rapidly approach.

Thanks for your patience. It is quite likely that your family's history is correct. In September 1864 the 179th New York Volunteer Infantry was stationed in Virginia and participating the Siege of Petersburg. Most of the recruitment for the 179th occurred in the Finger Lakes region in late 1863 and early 1864. Most of the terms of recruitment were for three years. It is unlikely that your Abner Drake served in the 179th and then in the 97th. The 179th was one of the last New York regiments formed and most of its soldiers did not have time to go to other regiments. It might be possible that he served in the 97th and then reenlisted or transferred to the 179th.

The database on Ancestry.com seems to confirm that the person that you are searching for was in the 179th. I would strongly urge you to order his Compiled Service Record from the National Records and Administration. These papers would help you determine if he served in the 97th. The forms to order the files are available at NARA's Web site. Let me know if you need the URL and I would be happy to e-mail it to you.

Robert H. Graham, compiler, Yates County's "Boys in Blue" 1861-1865: Who They were---What

They Did, (Penn Yan, NY: no publisher, 1923), 135-139.

179th N.Y. Infantry

Recruiting began early in February, following the call of February 1st for 200,000 men, and the announcement that J. Barnet Sloan, of Penn Yan, who had been discharged the service as Major, following two years service in the 31st Inf., would be Major of a new 3-year regiment, the 179th, he to raise four companies of men. The headquarters of the new organization were established at Elmira. Capt. Charles F. Rudgers, of prior service in the 105th Inf., and Allen T. Farwell, of Penn Yan, associated themselves for the formation of a company, and Herman C. Howell, also of Penn Yan, and a former private in the 23d Inf., began securing men independently, in the hope of being made 2d Lieutenant. North further appears regarding Capt. Rudgers, and Mr. Howell was rejected by the examining surgeon after the company was at Elmira. The activities of Major Sloan covered a wide territory, and he rapidly secured the men for his four companies. Those whom he secured who were not credited to Yates were sent forward to Elmira in squads. There each company was mustered as soon as filled, and sent to camp near Washington. Various officers officiated at the U. S. muster. Co. A was mustered April 5th; Co. B. April 13th; Co. C. April 23d, and Co. F on May 25th. These were the companies in which Yates county was interested through men being in them who were credited to its towns. Co. F received the majority of the actual Yates county men, and was mustered in the U. S. service by 1st Lieut. William F. Greeley, 11th U. S. Inf. Yates county received credit for 47 men in the regiment, 18 being men from outside, while 16 Yates county men were credited to other counties.

Notes for CLARKE M. DRAKE:

Clark raised his family in Naples, NY. He was one of the historians of Drake records. He lived to be 83 yrs of age. (1956 Record)

From a letter written by Avis (Hubbard) Drake Reed to Mel Olney:
At the time this is being written, September 1987, I have very little information on Clark's early life. His father had been killed in the Civil War. Where or how the family had lived I have no idea.

We were visiting one of his cousins, who by the time we were there was somewhat mixed up as to the time and place, asked if Clark had returned from Washington. This brought to our mind that he had indeed at one time worked in Washington, DC.

I set about trying to find out more about this part of his life.
In doing this I talked in person with one of his daughters-in-law and wrote to another. They both indicated that they thought he was with the War Department.

Letters to various divisions of the National Archives eventually brought about a reply from the National Personnel Records Center Civilian Personnel Records with some interesting information.

On April 8, 1918 Clark M. Drake was appointed Clerk in the Office of the Chief Signal Officer. A later entry July 30, 1918 shows a promotion, and increase in salary, in the Office of the Director of Military Aeronautics. His resignation was accepted in the Office of the Director of Air Service, August 12, 1919. Another form indicated he was a Typist, and at the time of resignation received a bonus of $120.00

Other information found in the above mentioned records include that he was born at Prattsburg, N.Y. Attended Naples High School for 1 year; Grade School for 10 years; Atlanta High School for 1 1/2 . Employed: Farming for himself for 18 years. Left to accept government position. Previously employed at Prattsburg Grade School N.Y. for 5 years at $30 as teacher. (I believe this probably is reference to teaching at the Ingleside School which was part of the Prattsburg School district.)(M.O.)

In his later life he once again farmed for himself, and also did quite a bit of writing. For some reason his family did not seem to take this activity very seriously. His poems and articles were published in "The Rural New Yorker" a farm paper, and in magazines printed for the Unity Church which he was interested in.

I have not been able to locate any examples of his writing, but I have not put as much effort into it as I have with locating the other information. If I am able to find some I will make it available in some way.

This info was provided by Mel Olney husband of Violet Drake Olney 7/23/2000.

11 June 1886

In Canadice, June 1, Viola M., wife of John Drake, aged 22 years.

From Ontario County Journal 11 June 1886

Canadice, N. Y. - Mrs. Viola Drake died June 1st, aged 22 years. Her remains were taken to Blood's Depot for interment. The deceased was much esteemed for her many good traits of character, and the young people of the town sympathize with her husband in his severe affliction. A little boy only a few days old is left to divert the father's mind from his great loss.

Notes for JOHN R. DRAKE:

John R. Drake married his cousin Viola. She later died, as did their son.

John remarried and raised his family on the lands left to his father near Ingleside. He lived in the original home of our common fore father John Rodman Drake (0) with is daughter Katie (0435) until the 1950's. He died in his 87th year. 1956 record.

The Old Drake homestead raised 3 generations of Drakes. The children of John Rodman; Then Abner inherited it and had a family of five, they are Delilah, Helen, John, Scott and Clark. But Abner died in the Civil War. Then John R. inherited it and ha a family of five, of which Katie was one. She owned it till she married Glenn Babcock in late life and sold the old place to Brink. This information is from Oswald Presler, a letter written in 1988.

2nd Marriage to Henry William Lackey

June 09, 1867 Married by Rev. John Gunderson,

Witnessed by A. V. Pugsley and Jane Pugsley . Witnesses from Olive Twp.

Marriage Certificate: Record # 71 Located at Clinton County Courthouse, St. Johns, MI.

Barb,

I have a copy of the divorce between Wm Henry and Louisa. Actually she deserted him and he divorced her. I think it was about 1892 but, would have to check as it is information I don't have in my FTM file yet. I haven't unpacked the box with the divorce file in it but will send you what it says when I do.

Wm Henry was sent to Palo Pinto Co. TX at the end of the Civil War to fight Indians. He stayed out there for about 17 years. The last census I have him on there is this one,

The line 11 shows his brother. I am pretty sure Wm Henry was still in TX at the 1890 census but need to find land records to prove it. The divorce was pretty cut and dried. but it doesn't say whether Louisa ran off from him here or TX. She was living in TX at the time of the divorce and barely made it here to answer the charges against her. I have never found any records of her after the divorce was final. I assume she went back to TX.

If Wm. Henry was as bad as his grandson, she probably had plenty of cause to run off. I have a copy of Nelson's divorce from his first wife and it is something. He was a mean drunk and apparently pretty vile too. I often wonder if Wm Henry wasn't the same. There is also a divorce record for Wm Henry and Jerusia, but I don't have that one yet. I can't remember if it was available or not.

By the 1890s I think railroads went pretty much everywhere and unlike today, were a fairly cheap way to travel, even at their wages.

Louisa DRAKE 1831-1900/1910
a biography

Louisa DRAKE was born Nov 1831 in Steuben County, New York, daughter of Uriah DRAKE and Nancy BARNEY. She died before 1910 in Jack County, Texas. She married, first, Gideon Bowdish TRIPP 23 Nov 1848. Their children were Ellen A. TRIPP and William Riley TRIPP. She married, second, William Henry LACKEY 9 Jun 1867. The marriage also ended in divorce; William Henry LACKEY filed for divorce in September 1888 at Shiawassee County, Michigan. He had returned to Michigan after 17 years in Palo Pinto County, Texas. There were no children of this second marriage.

"...her father, I don't remember his given name - her mother was Nancy Drake. She lived to be 93 - she died in [18]92 or 1893 [these dates in error]- uncertain of the time. She was born 1812 - a wonderful woman, a pioneer. Grandpa Drake died several years before. Grandma had 4 sisters, one died an infant. [They] were Sarah, Jane [and] Hattie. Her brothers were Jacob, John, Lewis, Morris [and] Riley Drake. John and Morris were in the northern army of the Civil War. Morris was Flag Bearer. They lived to be old men, as I wrote to the Pension Dept. They were drawing pensions." source: Journal of Mary Louisa Tripp-Fields; 1950; copyright renewed 2006 by Mark L. Fields.

Louisa DRAKE and Gideon Bowdish TRIPP do not appear in the 1850 Michigan census. Probably, the name is transcribed in error and the record will eventually be found. Gideon Bowdish TRIPP had purchased 40 acres of land in 1839 in Clinton County.

Between 1864 (the date of the Ionia County land purchase) and Jun 1867 (marriage to LACKEY), Louisa DRAKE was living with her mother, Nancy BARNEY-DRAKE, in Clinton County, Michigan. She then married Henry LACKEY. Henry LACKEY had married previously (21 Sep 1851) one Sarah C DRAKE. We believe this to be the sister to Louisa DRAKE listed in the 1850 Clinton County, Michigan Federal Census.

Henry LACKEY and Louisa DRAKE appear in the 1870 Watertown, Clinton County, Michigan. and 1880 Palo Pinto Co, Texas Federal Census. In Sep 1888, Henry LACKEY divorces Louisa for desertion in Shiawassee Co, MI (she is then living with her son in Jack County, Texas). LACKEY had returned to Michigan and died there. In 1890, Louisa is listed as living in Finis, Jack County, Texas in a special veterans census as the widow of Henry LACKEY. In a declaration for pension, made in 1907, Henry LACKEY attests that he resided in Texas for 17 years before returning to Michigan. He remarried 17 Nov 1895 at St. Johns, Michigan to Jessica BAILEY.

Louisa DRAKE appears in one last census in 1900 living with son William Riley TRIPP in Jack County, Texas.

Gideon Bowdish TRIPP removed to Michigan between 1830 and 1839. There, Gideon Bowdish TRIPP married Harriet CARPENTER on 19 Dec 1841 in Eaton County, Michigan, USA. Harriet CARPENTER was born in 1817. She died in Sep 1847. They had the following children: Gertrude A TRIPP was born about 1837 in Michigan, USA. She died on 21 Jun 1915 in Jacksboro, Jack County, Texas, USA. Gertrude married Samuel Goodenough JAMESON, son of Juliette JAMESON on 22 Jan 1865. Samuel was born on 16 Oct 1837 in Vermont, USA and he was a Civil War veteran.

Gideon married 2nd, Louisa DRAKE daughter of Uriah DRAKE and Nancy on 23 Nov 1848 in Clinton County, Michigan. At the time of the marriage, Gideon Bowdish TRIPP was 36 and Louisa DRAKE was 17. The marriage ended in divorce, sometime between 1859 and 1867. Louisa DRAKE was born in Nov 1831 in New York, USA. She died between 1900/1910 in Finis, Jack County, Texas, USA. They had the following children: Ellen Augusta TRIPP was born in Jan 1850 in Michigan, USA. She died on 21 Dec 1873 in Dewitt, Clinton County, Michigan, USA. The cause of death was Dropsy. She was buried in Hurd Cemetery, Dewitt, Clinton County, Michigan, USA. Ellen married John B SEDORE on 10 Oct 1867 in Ingham County, Michigan, USA. John was born about 1843 in NY. He died in 1894 in Clinton County, Michigan, USA. He was buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Grand Ledge, Eaton County, Michigan, USA. William Riley TRIPP was born on 23 Sep 1851 in Clinton Co, Michigan. He died on 13 Nov 1929 in Jack County, TEXAS, USA. He was buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Jack County, TEXAS, USA. William married Nettie (Henrietta) Medora AVERY. "Nettie" daughter of James Merritt AVERY and Sarah Emeline CAMPBELL on 16 Aug 1877 in Grand Ledge, Eaton County, Michigan. Nettie was born on 30 Sep 1857 in Bingham Twp, St Johns Post Office, Clinton County, Michigan. She died on 26 Oct 1939 in Jack County, Texas, USA. She was buried in 1939 in Oakwood Cemetery, Jacksboro, Jack County, Texas, USA.

Journal: "In his young days (he) went west to see the new country. In Kansas he had his hat shot off his head on the prairie (this time period would have been later when he traveled to Oklahoma because Kansas is not on the way from New York to Michigan). He kept riding as he thought someone had lost his horse and was trying to get another to make his get away. After marrying Grandma (Louisa Drake), he bought and paid for 40 acres of good farm land (1839) in Clinton County (Michigan). Grandma was dissatisfied. She heard of new land ... of them off and sold out. But the land (purchased 1864) was poor. They separated. She went to her mother. He kept my father (William Riley Tripp) and Aunt Ellen (Tripp). Papa (William Riley Tripp) was 8 years old - Ellen (Tripp) about 10. Later she (Louisa Drake) married Henry Lackey. Then she went and got Papa and Aunt Ellen while grandpa (Gideon Bowdish Tripp) had gone to town. They (William Riley Tripp and Ellen Tripp) stayed awhile then Aunt Ellen went back to her father. She (Ellen) married when about 15 years. She (Ellen) was 22 when she died. For their day they (Ellen) had a nice home with ... and furniture suited for that day. Grandpa (Gideon Bowdish Tripp) was restless hunting new country. He married again and on his way to Texas he took the fever and died. He is buried in Oklahoma but we don't know where.", Journal of Mary Louisa Tripp-Fields; 1950; copyright renewed 2009 by Mark L. Fields.

Note: From marriage records, Gideon married (1) Harriett Carpenter, (2) Louisa Drake, and possibly (3) Unknown although most researchers have Louisa first and Harriett second, incorrectly. See The Tripp Family by Lucinda Ruth Tripp-Avery and bibliography of sources.

By the 1890s I think railroads went pretty much everywhere and unlike today, were a fairly cheap way to travel, even at their wages.

I finally got to the box with the divorce record for Henry Lackey and Louisa Drake in it.

April 30, 1895, Henry starts divorce proceedings against Louisa

On May 13, 1895 Henry filed for divorce on the grounds of desertion. Record # 2717 Circuit Court, Corunna, MI.

May 14th, the sheriff reported that he could not serve Louisa with a subpoena because she was not a resident of the county.

May 27th Henry was deposed by JL Topping or Tossing, Notary Public of Shiawassee Co. and stated that Louisa was a resident of Jack Co. TX.. The Circuit Court judge ordered that Louisa would have 4 months to appear or answer the complaint for divorce and that a notice had to be published in the Shiawassee Co. Reporter, a newspaper, by Henry, for 6 weeks or that he cause her to be personally served with a copy of the complaint.

June 17, 1895, Evidently someone served her or sent her notice that she was being divorce because there is a petition filed by JL Topping or Tossing, as her solicitor, asking that an appearance of the defendant be entered on her behalf and that a copy of the bill be delivered to him within 15 days.

The judge issued an order to that effect on the same day.

July 31, 1895, Louisa's solicitor filed a petition to order that for want of an answer from Louisa, the solicitor for Henry could at his option grant an extention or not and that evidence would be heard in open court without further notice to Louisa as she had waived all notice of hearings.

Aug. 22, 1895, Henry's solicitor files a petition that says that more than 20 days had elapsed since Louisa was served with the complaint and she has not plead, answered or demurred in the same.

Nov. 1, 1895 Judge Wm. T. Kendrick ordered that Louisa is guilty of desertion and orders the marriage dissolved.

An undated page, which I believe to be a part of the original petition for divorce, states that Louisa disregarded her marriage vows and that on or after Sept. 1, 1888 she absented herself from Henry without any reasonable cause for the space of 2 years and upwards and has persisted in such desertion and yet continues to absent herself from him.

I looked at the Jack Co. UsGenWeb page, <http://www.rootsweb.com/~txjack/> a little bit ago and there is some cemeteries listed there that we can search through to see if she was buried there. There a quite a few and I didn't have time to start looking yet. I did look at the indexes for the funeral homes listed and didn't find her. I also wrote to a lookup volunteer to ask if she could find a marriage record for her in one of the books she has listed. Will let you know what I hear.

Ellen Augusta TRIPP was married to John B SEDORE 10 Oct 1867 in Ingham County per the Dibeau Index. She died 21 Dec 1873, just 6 years later. She died of "dropsy" which is non-specific edema; it was probably cardiac inflammation caused by another illness. No children have been discovered from this marriage. Sedore served in the Civil War, thus he was gone much of the 6 years of their marriage.

From Bonnie Briggs: Files from the court records state that Henry divorced Louisa for desertion in Sept of 1888. At the time of the divorce, Louisa was in Jack Co., TX, and Henry was in Bennington twp.,
Shiawassee Co., MI.

Barb,

I have a copy of the divorce between Wm Henry and Louisa. Actually she deserted him and he divorced her. I think it was about 1892 but, would have to check as it is information I don't have in my FTM file yet. I haven't unpacked the box with the divorce file in it but will send you what it says when I do.

Wm Henry was sent to Palo Pinto Co. TX at the end of the Civil War to fight Indians. He stayed out there for about 17 years. The last census I have him on there is this one,

The line 11 shows his brother. I am pretty sure Wm Henry was still in TX at the 1890 census but need to find land records to prove it. The divorce was pretty cut and dried. but it doesn't say whether Louisa ran off from him here or TX. She was living in TX at the time of the divorce and barely made it here to answer the charges against her. I have never found any records of her after the divorce was final. I assume she went back to TX.

If Wm. Henry was as bad as his grandson, she probably had plenty of cause to run off. I have a copy of Nelson's divorce from his first wife and it is something. He was a mean drunk and apparently pretty vile too. I often wonder if Wm Henry wasn't the same. There is also a divorce record for Wm Henry and Jeruscia, but I don't have that one yet. I can't remember if it was available or not.

By the 1890s I think railroads went pretty much everywhere and unlike today, were a fairly cheap way to travel, even at their wages.

I finally got to the box with the divorce record for Henry Lackey and Louisa Drake in it.
April 30, 1895, Henry starts divorce proceedings against Louisa
On May 13, 1895 Henry filed for divorce on the grounds of desertion. Record # 2717 Circuit Court, Corunna, MI.
May 14th, the sheriff reported that he could not serve Louisa with a subpoena because she was not a resident of the county.
May 27th Henry was deposed by JL Topping or Tossing, Notary Public of Shiawassee Co. and stated that Louisa was a resident of Jack Co. TX.. The Circuit Court judge ordered that Louisa would have 4 months to appear or answer the complaint for divorce and that a notice had to be published in the Shiawassee Co. Reporter, a newspaper, by Henry, for 6 weeks or that he cause her to be personally served with a copy of the complaint.
June 17, 1895, Evidently someone served her or sent her notice that she was being divorce because there is a petition filed by JL Topping or Tossing, as her solicitor, asking that an appearance of the defendant be entered on her behalf and that a copy of the bill be delivered to him within 15 days.
The judge issued an order to that effect on the same day.
July 31, 1895, Louisa's solicitor filed a petition to order that for want of an answer from Louisa, the solicitor for Henry could at his option grant an extention or not and that evidence would be heard in open court without further notice to Louisa as she had waived all notice of hearings.
Aug. 22, 1895, Henry's solicitor files a petition that says that more than 20 days had elapsed since Louisa was served with the complaint and she has not plead, answered or demurred in the same.
Nov. 1, 1895 Judge Wm. T. Kendrick ordered that Louisa is guilty of desertion and orders the marriage dissolved.

An undated page, which I believe to be a part of the original petition for divorce, states that Louisa disregarded her marriage vows and that on or after Sept. 1, 1888 she absented herself from Henry without any reasonable cause for the space of 2 years and upwards and has persisted in such desertion and yet continues to absent herself from him.

I looked at the Jack Co. UsGenWeb page, <http://www.rootsweb.com/~txjack/> a little bit ago and there is some cemeteries listed there that we can search through to see if she was buried there. There a quite a few and I didn't have time to start looking yet. I did look at the indexes for the funeral homes listed and didn't find her. I also wrote to a lookup volunteer to ask if she could find a marriage record for her in one of the books she has listed. Will let you know what I hear.

Notes for NANCY ANN LACKEY:
OBITUARY OF NANCY ANN POWERS

Mrs. Nancy Ann Powers peacefully passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emma Tubbs, in Corunna early Tuesday morning. She came there on Sunday afternoon for a visit before her daughters departure for an extended stay in California. She was ill only a very short time.

She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lackey and was born in Riley Township, Clinton County, Michigan on June 25, 1857.

On Feb. 24, 1874, She was united in marriage to Wm. Henry Vogler, a civil war veteran, who passed away on Oct. 26, 1888 leaving her with five small children, all of whom survive. They are, one son, Benjamin of Sciota Twp., four daughters, Mrs. Ella A. Deasy of San Anselmo, California, Mrs. Nellie M. Berry of Los Angeles, California, Mrs. Emma Tubbs of Corunna, and Mrs. Edna Galligan of Laingsburg.

She remained a widow for several years then was remarried to Benjamin F. Powers a resident of Bennington Township, and three children survive this union. One daughter, Mrs. Wallace Fulton of Haslett, with whom she had lived the past two years: two sons, Floyd of Webberville and Leon of Lansing. 19 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren also survive. Mr. Powers passed away on Sept. 22, 1920

Funeral services were held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Galligan, on Friday afternoon at two o'clock, the grandsons bearing her remains to their final resting place in the Bennington No. 1 Cemetery beside her late husband. The flowers were carried by six granddaughters.

At her request the Rev. M. P. Karr assisted by Rev. W. J. Robinson, officiated at the service.

Asleep where the straying sunshine
Falls with a holier glow,
Asleep where the waving willow
Bends so lovingly and low;
Asleep where the moonlights footstep
Touches the dewey sod,
Is the weary soul, resting
That went out to meet it's God.

CARDS OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly came to our assistance with love and sympathy at this time of affliction; also to those who remembered us in kindness with lovely flowers, and especially thanks to Rev. M. P. Karr and Rev. W. J. Robinson for their beautiful well-chosen words.

Notes for WILLIAM HENRY VOGLER:

William Henry Vogler was the first huband of Nancy Ann Lackey. He was born in Saxony, Germany according to the various records we have found regarding him. We know that he moved to Bennington before he was twenty-one years old.

According to his "Argus Press" obituary. dated October 31, 1888, he was born in Saxony, Germany in 1840 and came to Oakland County, Michigan, with his parents when he was nine years old. When the Civil War broke out he enlisted in the 7th Michigan Cavalry on August 7, 1861.

Wounded at the Battle of Ball's Bluff, he was discharged from the service. After regaining his health he re-enlisted in the 8th Michigan Calvary. He was again wounded in an engagement and was captured by Confederate Soldiers. He was confined for more than one year at Andersonville Prison, bravely enduring the hardships of that notable prison.

At the close of the war he returned to Bennington and bought a farm on Hibbard Road. He took a young wife to his home and together they prospered to an unusual degree. His land was in fine shape and his buildings were all new and first class.

William Vogler died at his residence on Hibbard Rd. of nueralgia of the lungs and heart. The Monday previous to his death, while picking apples, a ladder fell on his shoulder injuring him severly. This accident was probably the cause of his illness and death. He died October 26, 1888.

Funeral services were held at his home with many ex-soldiers and many friends and neighbors attending. Rev. D. W. Sharts preached the sermon. He is buried by his comrades of the Quackenbush Post 205, a G.A.R. post, in the soldiers lot at Oak Hill Cemetery on Washington St. in Owosso, Mi.

In another article found in the November 7, 1888 edition fo the "Argus Press" we found

; RESOLUTIONS--WILLIAM VOGLER

Whereas, An All-Wise Providence has seen fit to again visit Quackenbush Post No. 205, and remove by death Comrade William Vogler, one of its members. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we hereby record our testimony to his sterling qualities as a comrade and soldier, and extend our heart felt sympathy to his widow and children, as well as to all near relatives and friends of the deceased.

Also, Resolved, that this demise of our comrade and brother, reminds us who remain of the sure and fast decadence and death of all those who compose the ranks of our gallant citizen soldiery, who risked their lives more than twenty years ago on the fields of war in defense of our government, and calls upon us to more and more exercise charity, fraternity and loyalty towards each other.

Resolved, That this post will wear the usual badge of mourning for the deceased and that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family of our deceased comrade, as well as copies to our city paper for publication.

The following is an article sent to me by Mary Ellen Vogler Fike. I don't know where it was originally printed.

ANDERSONVILLE PRISON

Largest Confederate stockade for Union captives during Civil War/ Conditions in camp led to mass deaths of prisoners/ At war's end, commandant of prison, Capt. Henry Wirz, executed for murder.

Agreements to exchange military prisoners broke down early in the CIVIL WAR, and both the North and South were forced to provide for the thousands of captured soldiers each held. Although the North's record of humane treatment was far from perfect, its abundance of food, manpower and medical supplies permitted it to treat Confederate prisoners with at least modicum of decency. In the South, however, the situation was far different. As the war progressed and severe shortages developed in all essentials, the problem of feeding and housing 127,000 captured Union soldiers became acute. Widespread disease and death among the prisoners resulted.

The most notorious of Confederate Prisoner compounds was at Andersonville, deep in the Georgia swamps. Opened February, 1864, the jerry built camp covered a mere 26 acres. Into it some 32,000 prisoners were jammed with little in the way of sanitary or medical facilities, and with an uncertain supply of rations. By the summer of 1864, conditions had reached such a deplorable state that hundreds of prisoners were dying each day of typhoid, typhus, infected wounds and starvation. In the North, rumors of conditions at the prison led the Secretary of War EDWIN STANTON to charge the South with a deliberate policy "of savage and barbarous treatment" of Union prisoners. And indeed, approximately half of those held at Andersonville died before they could be liberated by the victorious Northern Troops. When the full horror of Andersonville became known a cry for vengeance rose in the North. Capt. Henry Wirz, commandant of the camp was tried by court-martial in 1865 shortly after the war ended. Despite evidence that Wirz had done his best to mitigate the suffering of the prisoners in his charge, he was convicted of murder and executed on November 10, 1865.

Found a Moris B. Drake who enlisted at Bengal twp., on 29 Dec 1863 as priv - age 21 (Bet this is the same yr. John W. enlisted too as same month & day).
Morris was promoted to full Corpl, last reported residence at Fowler, MI. Said he transfered to D Co., 28th Inf. Reg. MI and mustered out at Raleigh, NC on 5 June 1866. There was pension filed, by widow Elizabeth, but I have Mary T. Rice as wife of Morris??? (Do have an Elizabeth as wife of John W. however???)
Have both John W. and Morris B. as sons of Uriah Drake.

Fowler is in Dallas Twp. Clinton Co. It's located on M-21 west of St. Johns and east of Pewamo. From the map it is in sections 11, 12, 13 & 14. Those four being a square and Fowler being in the middle of it. It is just west of Bengal Twp.

I looked in my History book and didn't find much on the 28th Infantry at all. I checked at Don Harvey's CW site and found a Francis A. Drake from Jackson in Co. D, but not Morris B. I am not sure his data base contains the name when a man transferred. I know one of the Voglers I have was in 2 different outfits and he is only listed in the first one. Checking other companies netted Isreal M. of Lawrence and James of Hartford in Co. F, Rueben of Newburg in Co. G. There were no others in the 28th.

Looking in the

1st Inf. Co. A, Jacob C. 27 of Washtenaw Co., Nathaniel P., 18, Jackson Co. Co. D.

2nd Inf Co. I Manning, 24, Calhoun Co.

3rd Inf., Co. A shows William H. age 25 of Kent Co. and Henry Lackey 31, Gr. Rapids, James F. age 20, of Portland, Ionia Co. Co. E., Francis F.

Lackey age 20 of Gr. Rapids in Co. F.,

4th Inf. Co. B, Franklin, 18 Lenawee Co.

I stopped at the end of the 4th Inf. I will try to find them tomorrow in the other rosters.

Here's what I have in my FTM file on John W.

1870 Michigan Census

Bengal Twp , Clinton Co.

Reel # 669, page 14, line 38.

This shows a John W. Drake, 32 years old, his wife Elizabeth age 27 years old. He was born in Michigan and she was born in New York.

No other information is given. John is listed in an 1862 probate record as being the son of Uriah and Nancy Drake.

Marriage Record:

John and Elizabeth Jones were married in Bengal Township, Clinton Co. Michigan, on March 29, 1860. They were married by George W. Parks, Justice of the Peace. Witnesses were Smith A Parks of Bengal and Henry Lackey of Bengal.

Possible Civil War Pension (need to verify as of 16 april 2001.

Date of application: April 14, 1884

Application # 510808

Certificate # 383106

I don't have anything on Morris for the military, and checking under the 1st Eng & Mech I only found,

Co. B., Philander D. 24, Gr. Rapids,

Co. C., Abraham H. 29, Gr. Rapids,

Co. G., John W. 23, Palmyra and Joshua C. 18, Palmyra,

I don't know why our John isn't there. I will search through the whole thing eventually though. It is just time consuming. LOL....

As you can see from above I have the same marriage info you have for them, so I don't know who this Elizabeth is. Both John and Morris out lived their wives. John died in 1918 and Morris in 1927. I am sure their death record is at the courthouse and I will add it to the list of things I need to find there. I don't know when I will be going, as my insomnia is so bad that I am sleeping mostly in the day time now. Even with 3 different meds to help me fall asleep, I am wide awake most of the night. I think it's my arthritis meds that I have to take at night is causing it, but I went off it and after just 2 days could barely walk from the arthritis. Once it warms up and the dampness is gone I will be back on track again.

Notes from Lucy Drake Taylor's Death Certificate

She had been sick with arthritis about 10 years.

The immediate cause of death was myocarditis which means inflammation of the heart muscle. She died at 9:45 p.m. Dec 1, 1923 at their home located at 302 S. Jackson St. ward 4, Ionia, Michigan

Her physician was Dr. J. M. Irving of Lyons, MI

Undertaker, Matthew G. Bradley, Ionia. She was buried Dec 4, 1923 in Clear Lake Cemetery located at intersection of Jenks Road & Brown Roads, west of Route 66 in Montcalm County, MI. About 2 miles south of Fenwick, Michigan. The large stone is dark gray granite. So smaller markers

Child of LUCY DRAKE and WESLEY TAYLOR is:

- i. BENJAMIN DAVID⁵ TAYLOR, b. 25 Feb 1879; d. 18 Jul 1918; m. PEARL WOOD.

49. WILLIAM WALLACE⁴ DRAKE (LEV³, CATHARINE² ROSE, JOHN¹) was born 25 Jul 1857 in (tomb sonte has 1858 as birth year), and died 20 Jul 1912 in Fenwick, Montcalm Co., Mich. buried

- v. CHARLES HENRY R. DRAKE, b. 20 Feb 1898.
- vi. SARAH AMANDA DRAKE, b. 10 Apr 1899; m. HARRY GUNCHEL, Flint, MI.
- vii. MARY EDNA DRAKE, b. Mar 1901, probably the one that was listed as Edna; d. 10 Feb 1902, age 10 mos 15 days.

Notes for MARY EDNA DRAKE:

Double stone for Mary Edna Drake, daughter of William and Hester Drake, died Feb 10, 1902, age 10 mos 15 days and John Leroy Drake died Aug 12, 1861, age 4 mos 14 days. Mary Edna is the granddaughter of Levi Drake and Sarah Sheldon Drake. This stone is next to the one for Benjiman L. Drake, son of Levi and Sarah. This leads me to believe that John Leroy is the son of Levi and Sarah. My theory is that when William's daughter died, they used the same grave John had been buried in. This was a common practice in MI back then, and it would explain the single stone for both babies. Also notice that John died the same day Benjiman did. I think the accident (see next picture) killed both boys at the same time.

52. LUCY A.⁴ ROSE (*AARON P.*³, *JOHN*², *JOHN*¹) was born 15 Sep 1843 in Girard, Mich -- she is 7 in 1850, and died 03 Sep 1920 in San Jose, CA on the Friday preceeding Sept 4, 1920 --Sep 4 was a Saturday so Sept 3 would have been the death date.. She married RUFUS MALLORY 24 Jun 1860 in Liv. Portland, Ore., son of SAMUEL MALLORY and LUCRETIA DAVIS. He was born 10 Jan 1831 in Coventry, Chenango Co., No, and died 30 Apr 1914 in Portland Or..

Notes for LUCY A. ROSE:

Oh are you going to be excited...I have found some juicy stuff on Lucy Rose...as in she hated her stepmother who threaten to kill her father, she married her school teacher, Rufus Mallory, at age 13. She had one son, Elmert E Mallory, who was an attorney and died in Portland 30 Jul 1917...just three years after his father died.

Refus was a member of the House, not Senate. On Feb 24, 1868 he gave a speech on the floor of the House against the Impreachment of Andrew Johnson.

Lucy died at her residence in San Jose, CA on the Friday preceeding 4 Sep 1920. She was born two years after her sister, Emily. Her mother, Minerva Kellog, died in child birth. 15 months later her father remarried to Sarah...she had black hair, gray-green eyes, and was of slender build. She treated Lucy and her sister, Emily, with extreme cruelty and said "If you ever tell your pa, I will kill him."

It is no wonder she married so young..to get away from the evil stepmother.

In 1851 Aaron Rose bought 320 acres of land on the site of what is now Roseburg, Oregon. They lived in a 10 by 12 cabin made of slabs split from trees. They cooked in the fireplace until her father bought a woodstove for $75. The county seat was in Winchester but in 1854 it was moved to a more central location which happened to be on Aaron Rose's farm. At first it was called Deer Creek...and consisted of the Rose's hotel and a saloon. Later it was christened, Roseburg.

Lucy's best companion was an Indian Boy by the name of Solomon. He was a mystic and philosopher. Later some drunks from the saloon killed some Indians and after the ensuing trouble...the indians, including Solomon, were put on a reservation. Solomon died on the reservation within a year.

Aaron Rose came West for the second time in 1851 in the horse train of Denney.

Lucy later took up with a very strange person, Captain Jane, a woman pretending to be a man. Lucy said, "I loved Captain Jane from the first time I saw her."

Captain Jane later stuck it rich in the mines and went back east with her little daughter. Later she returned after her daughter was grown and stayed with Lucy for a month. She finally got her own little house and died two years later.

I had mentioned the Mallory Hotel in Portland...well, Lucy had a place in the back in addition to her own home. She was editor of The New Thought magazine and published a journal World Advance Thought and Universal Republic from 1887 to 1918.

Leo Tolstoi was a fan of Lucy's writing and they exchanged letters, "Though I cannot agree with your belief in mediumship and occultism I greatly value your journal for which I heartily thank you. I find it true and healthy spiritual food and very highly appreciate your activity. (Tolstoi to Lucy Mallory 21 Aug to 3 Sep 1904)

Tolstoi said Aug 28, 1907, "I think Lucy Mallory is one of the most intelligent women both of our time as well as of former times. In her every word is to be seen a concentrated spiritual effort."

Lucy A Rose Mallory has a big fan at the Oregon Historical Society, Sieglinde Smith. You may email her at sieglins@ohs.org. She would love anything you can provide about Lucy and would love a photo. (503) 306-5240

I am forwarding the Rose stuff you sent to Sieglinde. She is excited about it and wishes someone would write a book about Lucy.

I am attaching a picture of Aaron Rose, Lucy's father. It's not very good.. I will go back and see if I can get a better copy.

Yours, Mallory Smith

PS: Lucy used to give Psychic Readings out of the back of the Mallory Hotel.

The stuff I pulled said Elmer E.....I had thought it was Elmer....Lucy's obit said "and an only son, Elmer E Mallory, also an attorney, died in Portland July 30, 1917. Following the death of her son Mrs. Mallory left for San Jose." I have a copy of his signature....unfortunately, he signed "E E Mallory" and other references are to EE Mallory. I am going back to the History Center today and will check for more info. Mallory

Hi....Do you have any information on the parents of Rufus Mallory who married your Rose? I am working on a project connecting Mallorys. My first thought was he was b 8 Apr 1838...but I know believe that to be another Rufus. Any info. would be appreciated. Yours, Mallory Smith

I presume you know about their history in Oregon....City of Roseburg....Mallory Hotel in Portland, Etc Yours truly, Mallory Smith

Hi Barbara...Have you done any work on the family of Rufus Mallory.....I beleive his parents were Samuel Mallory and Lucretia Davis....I am looking for a possible brother, Charles F Mallory. Mallory Smith

Barb....The Oregon Historical Society has a great deal of information on Rufus. They are located in Portland, Oregon. I mean to get down there to see if I can gain enough info to connect him to the rest of the Mallorys...It turns out the Rufus I thought was your Rufus was another b in 1838, not 1831...and that Rufus was born in Vt or more probably Mallorytown Ontario where he remained as a farmer. Believe your Rufus was son of Samuel Mallory and Lucretia Davis...but I am not certain yet. Lucretia quite possibly was decended from John Davis, a US Senator from Oxford, Ct. Of course, all the Northern Mallorys can be traced to Peter Mallory who signed the Planter's Covenant at New Haven in Aug. 1644. There were quite a few Samuel Mallorys born about the right time to be Rufus' father, so it will take a little sorting out.

Let me know if you get any good info. Thanks, Mallory Smith

As you probably know...Roseburg, Oregon was named after the Rose family who had come from Michigan I beleive. A local historian can probably provide considerable information.....Rufus Mallory, of course, has much written about him as he was a US Senator and longtime attorney in Oregon. There is a hotel in Portland named after him, "The Mallory."

Have you done any work on the family of Rufus Mallory.....I beleive his parents were Samuel Mallory and Lucretia Davis...I am looking for a possible brother, Charles F Mallory. Mallory Smith

Yes, they had children...but I haven't been looking so I only have one listed....Elmer. Rufus is in Whose Who and biographies of US Congressmen.....I have found several bios at Ancestry.com. I actually stayed in the Mallory Hotel shortly after I moved to Portland with my new bride in 1978. I'm sure the Oregonian Newspaper has had many articles about him.....and I remember back in 1962 (I think that was the year) when a huge explosion destroyed downtown Roseburg. A building fire broke out next to a parked fertilizer truck. When the exploding desiel fuel from the truck's tank mixed with the ammonium nitrate it blew a huge crater in the middle of the street.

I really need to get down to the Oregon Historical Society. I understand they have considerable information about Rufus.

Its 2:25 am...I'm going to bed. Later, Mallory

Rufus Mallory, of course, has much written about him as he was a US Senator and longtime attorney in Oregon. There is a hotel in Portland named after him, "The Mallory."

Rufus was born 1831....the youngest of nine children. So, he was 29 and she 13...life with the evil stepmother must have been bad indeed. Interesting...in one of the articles she wrote she was 13 when she married...but I note, if her mother died in 1843...then she was 17. Perhaps, she was writing for dramatic effect.

Yes, (7)Rufus was born 10 Jan 1851 Coventry,Chenango Co. NY d 30 Apr 1914 Portland, OR = 24 Jun 1860 Lucy A Rose b 15 Sep 1843 Girard, Mich d Sep 1920 San Jose Ca.

Here is the remainder of Rufus Line:

(6) Samuel Mallory 9 Aug 1783 Oxford Ct d 19 aug 1854 Greenwood, NY = Lucretia Davis 2 Sep 1790 Oxford, CT d 19 Nov 1867 Greenwood, NY (she daughter of Col. John Davis and Mehitable Thomas of Oxford, Ct)

(5) David Mallory bp 5 May 1754 d 1 Jun 1841 Cornwall, Ct = 3 Sep 1778 Ruth Ann Trowbridge 1759 Southbury, Ct (dau. of Joseph Trowbridge and Trial Morehouse)

(4) John Mallory 25 Aug 1714 Woodbury, ct d c 1760 = Mary_____. (after John's death, Mary married Ct Nathan Miner)

(3) Thomas Mallory 11 Jan 1684/85 d 21 Jul 1783 = 13 Jan 1706/07 Stratford Elizabeth Bartlett d 5 Nov 1719 Woodbury, CT

(2) Thomas Mallory 15 Apr 1659 bp 11 Jul 1663 d 15 Feb 1690/91 = 26 mar 1684 New Haven Ct Mary Humphreville (Umberfield) 1659 or 1667 d 5 Nov 1719 Woodbury

(1) Peter Mallory b unk (1623-27) Took the Planter's Oath at New Haven 8 Aug 1644 d 1698 to 1701 = Mar 1648/49 Marie (Mary Preston) b 1629 bp 13 Dec 1629 Chesham, England. (There is no proof Mary Preston married Peter Mallory. She was referred to as Mary or Goodwife Mallory on legal documents, and some genealogies give others as wife.) Marie came from London Sep 1635 aboard the Truelove (capt J. Gibbs) with her father, William Preston, age 44, step-mother Marie (some say Seabrook, but that is probably wrong) 34, sisters Elizabeth 11 and Sarah 8, and younger brother John 3. The Preston Family remained in the Boston Area until late 1637 or 1638 then joined Rev John Davenport and Theophilus Eaton on the final leg of their journey to New Haven. William was among those chosen to remain at New Haven to secure the property for the colonists while the leaders returned to Boston for the remaining followers and provisions.

NOTE: There are various theories about the origin of Peter Mallory...don't believe any of the published information. Virtually, all are without any credible evidence. I am working on a theory which so far is proving to have some merit; at least no adverse information has been uncovered which would dispute this theory. However, at this time much of the evidence is circumstantial.

I have information of Rufus' brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, etc.

Yours, Mallory

. By the way, I found another source of information and it had child of Lucy and Rufus as Elmer E..not Elmer E. The information came from the Decendants of Col. John Davis. Lucretia Davis was daughter of Col John and mother of Rufus Mallory.... It also had the descendants of Elmer E....and an additional child for Lucy and Rufus who died very young.
